By ARTHUR GAVSHON
BERLIN (AP)—Austria offered today to extend the occupation rights of the Big Four powers to June 30, 1955, if they grant her independence at once—but Russia refused.

In a dramatic last-minute attempt to liberate his little nation from foreign troops, Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl made two separate proposals. Each time Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov said no.

The first would have extended the time for occupation troops to withdraw to mid-1955.

The second would have given chiefs of the American, British, French and Soviet diplomatic missions in Vienna control functions for an indefinite period after the independence treaty was signed and military evacuation was carried out.

Soviet rejection was flat and complete.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
BERLIN (AP)—British informants said today the Big Four plan to hold a Korean peace parley in Geneva about April 15. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov is consulting with the Red Chinese regime at Peking on the details of its participation, they added.

These were the developments from the foreign ministers' conference this afternoon as it neared its close.

Earlier American authorities said the Big Four had approached agreement on the Geneva parley, awaiting only Molotov's concurrence.

COUPLE TO MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Starnes of 450 NE 130th St., North Miami, Fla., will observe their 51st wedding anniversary on Washington's Birthday next Monday. Both natives of Adams County, they were wed February 22, 1903, in Flob's Church, McKnightstown, by the Rev. David T. Koser.

Mrs. Starnes, the former Betty Plank, who was born in 1885, and Mr. Starnes, born in 1875, were baptized and confirmed by the same minister who later performed their wedding ceremony. During the nuptials a wedding prayer was read for the couple. It was especially written for them by the Rev. William C. Gerhard, grand uncle of the bride, who was 100 years old at the time he wrote it.

The Starnes settled in Florida in 1923 where for 29 years Mr. Starnes worked as a plasterer. He later was employed by the Jackson Hospital where he was in the pharmacy department under Dr. Anna Thiel. In 1952 he retired.

Mrs. Starnes is a cousin of the late Eddie Plank, famous baseball pitcher for Connie Mack's Athletics. Her grandmother, Sarah Plank, is said to have built the original house and barns in Gettysburg now owned by President and Mrs. Eisenhower. The buildings are presently being remodeled.

Although the Starnes have no children they have a number of relatives in and near Gettysburg.

COMMISSIONERS AND TREASURER SPLIT ON SALARY RAISE SCHEDULE

Adams County's "court house" employees—the ones under jurisdiction of the county salary board—received in general a $150 per year "across the board" pay increase Wednesday afternoon.

One increase of $500 per year was made to County Treasurer Jacob G. Appler to aid him in paying the salary of his deputy. The increase was similar to those given to the previous two treasurers and was brought about by raising the amount on which the county will pay the treasurer 2½ per cent commissions. The change in effect raised the limit of the amount the treasurer can receive per year from $5,500 to $6,000, of which about $2,000 goes to the deputy.

Appler, in presenting to the salary board his plea for a "pay boost," pointed out that a deputy is a necessity for the county treasurer's office if it is to provide service for the public. He added that growth of the county has increased the work of the treasurer's office until it is now at a point where two men are needed constantly, if various state reports are to be made on time, the books kept in order and customers waited upon promptly when they apply for dog, fishing or hunting licenses.

Appler Wants Merit System
After lengthy discussion, the county commissioners, who with the county treasurer comprises the salary board, suggested that the amount on which the treasurer is paid 2½ per cent be raised from $200,000 to $220,000 which would in effect raise the basic "salary" of the treasurer from $5,500 to $5,500. One-half per cent will be paid on all other county expenditures until the total paid the treasurer reaches $6,000 in any year. Previously the limit was $5,500.

Appler, as a member of the salary board, voted consistently against the $150 "across the board" pay hike.

He told the other three members of the board—Commissioners Clark L. Petters, Karl Smith and G. Ed. Taughnbaugh, he opposed the raises because he felt that the amount was insufficient, and secondly that he felt raises should be based on merit, that some deserved (Continued on Page 2)

PTA PLANS FOR FOUNDERS' DAY

Plans for observance of Founders' Day at the February meeting of the Gettysburg Joint Parent Teachers Association next Thursday evening, when school directors will be guests of honor, were announced at the monthly meeting of the PTA executive board Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Folkenroth, E. Middle St.

Vice President William C. Darrah presided at the Wednesday meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles A. Smith, with 12 members in attendance.

Mrs. Forrest Craver, chairman of the committee for the Founders' Day observance, said that school directors are being invited, Miss Joan Spangler's Junior High "Choraleers" will sing and there will be an 18-minute skit prepared by Mrs. Kenneth Smoke. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria after the meeting.

Robert Bloom reported for the Project committee and Carroll Smith for the ways and means committee. The latter announced plans for a rummage sale to be held soon. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $683.

Parking Meters Get 1st Paint In 10 Years

The manually operated parking meters in Gettysburg are getting their first coat of paint since they were installed here 10 years ago. The green bronze paint is being applied by two borough workmen when the weather is fit and when they can be spared from other borough duties.

The meters on Carlisle St. have been finished.

The color is the same as was on the meters when they were installed here, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner said. This is the third coat of paint for the meter posts.

The newer-type automatic meters in Lincoln Square do not require painting.

NEW COLLEGE ALUMNI UNIT IS ORGANIZED

The Franklin County Chapter of Gettysburg College Alumni Association was formally chartered in Waynesboro Tuesday night.

The certificate was presented at the annual dinner meeting in the social rooms of the Lutheran Church. Approximately 60 alumni and guests of the association applauded as C. Paul Cessna, alumni secretary, presented the scroll to Dr. John Manges, Chambersburg, president of the unit.

The presentation climaxed the two and a half hour social gathering and turkey dinner, a "State of the College" address by Dr. Walter C. Langsam, the president, and a talk by Dr. Harvey Hoover, retired member of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary faculty.

Woman Is Toastmistress
Mrs. Viola Little, a Gettysburg graduate, acted as toastmistress. It was originally planned to have her husband, Marsby C. Little, superintendent of Waynesboro schools, preside, but because of a school administrators' meeting in Atlantic City, the assignment fell to Mrs. Little.

Robert A. Zimmerman, supervisor of instrumental music in the Waynesboro - Mont Alto Schools, and Mrs. Zimmerman, alumni of Lebanon Valley College, directed the singing.

Dr. Langsam Speaks
In his "State of the College" message, Dr. Langsam told of the preparations being made for the visit of the evaluation committee of the Middle States Association. In reading the school's records for the visit March 9, 10, 11, a search of the files from 1942 to 1952 inclusive disclosed that 844 graduates continued their education elsewhere and of that number 507 placed in the excellent-good ranking.

Dr. Hoover Speaks
He emphasized the need for a new dormitory and other facilities on the campus and explained the forthcoming fund raising campaign.

Dr. Hoover, a member of the class of 1899, spoke on the food of Bible times. He pointed out that bread in those times, as today, was the principal food. In eating the bread served as a spoon, because their utensils were limited. All of the diners "dunked" out of a common bowl, usually containing a stew of meat and vegetables.

The oldest Waynesboro alumnae attending was Mabel Yonson Fahney of the class of 1909.

COUNTY BUDGET IS ADOPTED BY COMMISSIONERS

Both the county and the county's institution district are scheduled to end the year with "comfortable balances" according to the budgets adopted by the county commissioners Wednesday afternoon at their regular meeting in the Court House.

The county budget anticipates income of $253,167.08 and expenditures of $215,666. The institution district budget calls for income of $165,272.83 and expenditures of $141,281.

Income for the institution district will include a balance of $35,952.71 from 1953. The budgets set up to have a balance at the end of the year to carry the district, and the county, over the "lean period" from the beginning of the year until taxes are started to be paid late in the summer.

In connection with the institution district the budget anticipates receipts of $95,175.12 from 1954 taxes, $5,500 from prior year's taxes, $1,645 from the commonwealth, $4,000 from guests at the county home who are able to pay part or all of their board and room, $2,000 from the sale of products from the county farm and $1,000 from other sources.

Here And There News Collected At Random

When Charles W. "Charley" Myers was laid to rest in a cedar lined grave in Evergreen Cemetery Wednesday afternoon he carried with him many cherished memories few men have been privileged to attain.

A. He was proud of the final benediction intoned by his fraternal associates reciting the Masonic Ritual for the departed.

B. He was happy because he was buried within the borders of his old beloved Gettysburg... his old home town... "there isn't another town like it in the whole world" he often told me.

C. A dyed-in-the-wool railroad he had faithfully served one employer, the Western Maryland Railroad Company, longer than any other man... more than three-quarters of a century... a service unequalled in the annals of American railroading. He was the only WM agent personally acquainted with eight of its Presidents and he also met nine Presidents of the United States.

At an early age Charley Myers petitioned Good Samaritan Lodge No. 336, Free and Accepted Masons, of Gettysburg. That was 48 years ago, and it was the beginning of a long and faithful (Continued on Page 2)

Five Red Marshals, Posing As Friends, Arrested Beria At Party In Polish Embassy

By TOM REEDY
BERLIN (AP)—The coup that pulled Lavrenty P. Beria from the Moscow scene was handled personally by five Soviet army marshals, Eastern sources said today.

And the army's influence on Kremlin policy, these informants said, explains in part the unwelcome line that Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov has pursued in the dying Big Four conference about military dispositions in Germany and Austria.

By their account, the army has advised Premier Georgi Malenkov it cannot feel safe yet if its divisions are pulled back from their forward posts in Europe. Therefore Malenkov sent Molotov here to block troop withdrawals at all costs. Through the failure of the Big Four to agree on German unification and an Austrian independence treaty, the troops will stay put.

Was Caught Unawares

the interior minister and secret police chief whose execution was announced Dec. 24.

No one apparently ever had more distinguished captors. Beria therefore never was suspicious until the net was drawn.

It happened one early summer night when Beria was the honored guest at a Polish Embassy party. Also present were Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, minister of the armed forces; Deputy War Minister Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, conqueror of Berlin and the army's real spokesman; and Marshal Leonid A. Govorov, famed in the defense of Leningrad.

Escorted From Party
With two other marshals, they escorted Beria from the party in such a manner that he never suspected he was being given anything but the honored treatment due the No. 2 man in the government. And Malenkov was not there.

CREDIT BUREAU OFFICERS TALK AT BANK DINNER

The establishment of a credit risk investigating agency and consequent investment safeguards fostered by the Adams County Credit Bureau were enumerated, Wednesday night, before the Adams County Bankers Association.

The credit bureau's principal objective of protecting Adams' merchants from non-paying customers, while granting credit "to those who are deserving," was told by two bureau officials at the bankers' monthly dinner meeting.

President William H. Musser Jr. and Manager Ernest Dulaney, informed a group of 40, representing nine member banks, at the meeting in Bankers' Restaurant: "It's better to be hit over the head and have your money lifted than to be bled over a number of years by bad credit investments."

"There is no place in Gettysburg that a merchant can get a better line on a prospective customer than from the Adams County Credit Bureau," they said.

Girl Runs Against Stopped School Bus

Patricia Lawrence, aged seven, Gettysburg R. 4, escaped injury when she ran against the side of a truck on York St. at 4:55 o'clock Wednesday evening, borough police reported.

Police said Maynard Minnich, York, operator of a Bowen and McLaughlin truck, was driving east on York St. on the fourth block of York St. A school bus was parked on the south side at the curb.

According to police, Minnich saw the child running from in front of the school bus, then swerved to the left and stopped. The child ran into the rear wheel of the halted truck.

The driver and the child's mother took the youngster to the Warner Hospital in the truck. There Dr. Roy W. Gifford was unable to find any injury to the girl.

Premature Child Is Given Chance To Live

A daughter born three months prematurely and weighing less than four pounds was born Tuesday at the York Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Wolf, York. Mrs. Wolf is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hughes, Carlisle St.

Mrs. Wolf fell on a third floor stairway several days ago. Physicians believed following the fall that there would be no complications. However the shock of the fall is believed to have led to the premature birth. The infant was placed in an incubator at the hospital. Physicians said the child has a "50-50 chance of survival."

KNOUSE FOODS PRESENTS NEW PIE FILLINGS

Today marks the opening of Knouse Foods' major program in central Pennsylvania to introduce their complete line of fruit pie fillings, according to a display advertisement appearing in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

Under the company's famous "Lucky Leaf" brand, these eight fruit pie fillings have been accepted by many buyers in the U. S. "All eight meet the rigid demands of today's most discriminating homemakers, and the local campaign features the manufacturer's offer to consumers of their first can free," a company official said.

Use Special Process
"Lucky Leaf" pie fillings are the result of an exclusive process that involved five years of research and distribution. This special process seals in the maximum flavor and color of fresh, tree-ripened fruit. Many television and food editors have heartily accepted "Lucky Leaf" pie fillings for their wide versatility to family menus, and, starting today, televisioners in the Harrisburg and York receiving areas can see these products demonstrated by leading food authorities," it was announced.

Antigone, a daughter of Oedipus and Jocasta, was typical of the faithfulness and heroism of the Greek ideal of noble womanhood. ## COUNTYMAN DIES THIS MORNING

Millard T. Coffman, 72, died suddenly this morning at 9:15 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagaman, Mt. Joy Twp., Littlestown R. D., with whom he had resided for the last 11 years.

While he had been ailing since January, he rose as usual this morning and was downstairs when stricken at about 9:10 o'clock. Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist attributed death to a coronary occlusion.

A native of Adams County, he is survived by two brothers, William Coffman, of Franklin County, and Preston Coffman, near Waynesboro.

Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home with the Rev. William H. Neldhammer, of the Hanover Holiness Christian Church, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening after 7 o'clock.

Guy A. Tanger, 68, prominent York Springs poultryman and hatchery operator, was killed instantly this morning on his farm a mile south of York Springs when a farm tractor rolled over him and crushed his skull.

The man's lifeless body was found by his son, Guy Tanger, York Springs R. 2, about 11:30 o'clock when the son returned from an errand that had occupied him for two hours.

Mr. Tanger was alone when the tragedy occurred and the time could be placed only as between 9:30 a.m. when the son left the farm and his return two hours later.

Was Repairing Pond Bank

The son told The Gettysburg Times that his father had been using a tractor with a large scoop attached to pile earth atop the bank around a large farm pond on the Tanger property west of the Gettysburg Highway. He was repairing erosion damage to the pond bank.

In some manner the tractor apparently overturned and rolled over its operator. When the son returned he found the tractor standing on its wheels at the base of the farm pond bank with his father's lifeless body beside one of the wheels. He said he believes the tractor turned through one complete revolution and stopped in an upright position.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, was called to the scene and was conducting an investigation this afternoon.

The victim's son called Dr. William Flickinger, York Springs, and the physician said death probably was instantaneous but did not attempt to fix the time of the accident.

Mr. Tanger was widely known in poultry circles. He had engaged in the poultry business for the last 41 years. He also developed a special strain of Leghorn chickens and branched into the turkey hatching and breeding fields.

CHIEF JUSTICE SUPPORTS BAN ON COURT PIX

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania judges and newspapermen today debated the question of whether a judge has a right to forbid news pictures of a defendant at any time.

Chief Justice Horace Stern of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court said on Monday a judge "has the absolute right to prevent taking of pictures of defendants and jurors in the court house or jail."

Justice Stern made the statement when asked to comment on a recent order of Westmoreland County Judge Edward G. Bauer. The judge had banned photographs of John Wesley Wable, accused of murdering two truck drivers last summer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Covers Wide Range

Judge Bauer's order, however, involved pictures of Wable "in the courtroom, court house, jail or anywhere the defendant may be."

The order brought forth an immediate protest from the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Assn. General Manager Theodore A. Serrell said the judge went beyond the code of judicial ethics adopted by the American Bar Assn. in 1937.

Justice Stern replied that Judge Bauer's order was in accordance with the code, adding:

Protects Jurors

"The purpose of this action is simple. We ought not to have justice degraded by having lurid pictures of the defendant published in newspapers. This evokes emotional feeling, detracts from the dignity of a serious court proceeding, and may be harmful to both the de-

Big Boxer "Stops The Music" For Symphony

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—A large boxer dog with a liking for musicians and a poor ear for music stopped a concert by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra Tuesday night for five minutes.

The opening notes of the overture played before an audience of over 4,000 in Massachusetts University's basketball gymnasium had hardly sounded before the boxer bounded into the midst of the closely seated musicians.

Bumping among the cellos and playfully noising up to other sections, the boxer stopped the music. Conductor Antal Dorati had the orchestra sound a chord to frighten the visitor but it only charmed the dog.

Finally, the strong hand of a student usher on the dog's collar did what music couldn't do—get him off stage so the concert could go on.

IKE'S PLAN TO HELP BUSINESS WELL RECEIVED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Flinders (R-Vt) said today he believes President Eisenhower's recommendations for meeting the nation's current economic situation are "just right."

The Vermont senator said he was particularly impressed with the President's tax recommendations designed to increase business incentives by giving corporations and investors some breaks.

Rep. Bolling (D-Mo) said in a separate interview he regards it as fully as important to do some things for the consumer.

Consumption can best be increased, he said, by raising the personal income tax exemption, cutting excise taxes, and speeding up action on public works.

March Is Key Month
Meanwhile, Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said he agrees with the President that March will be the key month in showing how the economic winds are blowing.

The President told his news conference that employment normally picks up in March. If that doesn't happen this year, he said that would be a warning of trouble and his administration would use every weapon available to head it off.

One of the first things that might be considered, he said, is a cut in taxes to spur consumer spending. He did not go into detail, but the taxes most generally cited in this connection are personal income levies and excise, or sales, taxes.

Foresees Improvement
Ferguson said he personally is optimistic that March will show an improvement in the unemployment situation, specifically in his own state where there now are sizable auto plant layoffs.

But if there is not, he said he would be willing to support some emergency moves such as public works projects.

Flanders said he was sure the President's tax program with its business and investment incentives would bring about a decrease in unemployment.

Bolling said the present administration so far "hasn't got to first base" with any program of building up a shelf of planned and ready-to-go public works if the downturn worsens.

COMMISSIONERS

much more than others, based on the value of their services to the county.

New Payroll Figures
The commissioners as steadfastly held for the $150 across the board increase, asserting that the increases will add $2,900 to the cost of operating the county and that "it is the best we can do with the funds available."

The new salary schedule adopted by the board includes: Pauline Staub, secretary to Judge Sheely, $2,280; Mrs. Anne Eisenhart, probation officer, $1,830; Mrs. Dorsey Schultz, jail matron, $1,830; James G. Warren, deputy sheriff, $2,790; Clarence C. Smith, chief commissioners' clerk, $4,182; Ray J. (Continued from Page 1) ful fraternal association, the like of which probably is unequalled in Gettysburg or in Pennsylvania.

Electing the York Rite he served through the chairs of the Blue Lodge, the Royal Arch Chapter No. 266, and the Commandery No. 79, Knights Templar. Then he joined the Zempo Shrine, Harrisburg. All the while he was a faithful member and attendant at local Masonic meetings, he served the exalted offices of Worshipful Master of the Blue Lodge, High Priest of the Chapter and Eminent Commander of the Commandery. He also served as treasurer of the Lodge, secretary of the Chapter, recorder of the Gettysburg Commandery and custodian of the Masonic Temple. How can you do anymore?

These attainments he cherished above all other fraternal and civic affiliations. He applied himself, gave generously of his time and was often cited as a model of Masonic devotion.

There are many other memorable things to be said about Charley Myers whose span of four score and seven years were spent in Gettysburg. Our association, however, embraces only three decades. These things we knew:

He had a fabulous memory. He was a master craftsman of many arts. We have never seen him in an overcoat (raincoat excepted). He knew more Gettysburg College graduates by name, business, home town and hobbies than any other Gettysburgian we have ever met.

He was a long-time ardent football, baseball and basketball fan. At one time he could recite more sports statistics than most of the so-called experts. He was adept at rolling a cigarette with one hand the never smoked machine-made cigarettes. He was the first to wear a straw hat in the spring (with very few exceptions) and the last to discard it in the fall. He was one of the two remaining Gettysburg charter members of the local Elks lodge and one of four surviving charter members of the Eagles Aerie here. Weather never bothered him. He did not like automobiles. He loved railroads. . . but we don't believe he ever rode a hundred miles on a train at one time. He could tell the size and make of the locomotive by the sound of its whistle.

These are only a few of the things we admired about Charley Myers, for many years, Gettysburg's first citizen.

The petition, signed recently by the boards making up the joint district, asks the court to approve terms of the re-sale which would give the land back to the Colt Park owners for $35,000, the value placed on the land by the board of viewers about a year ago.

From the Files of the

Decorators' Brushes Restoring Colorful Courtroom Designs: Complete renovation and remodeling of the interior of the court house, underway for more than a month, has reached the point where all that remains is the improvement of the courtrooms.

A force of painters and decorators working under the direction of Harvey Bushman, Gettysburg painting contractor, are repainting the decorative designs on the walls and ceiling of the historic building.

Where the work is completed persons who have seen the decorating marvel at the skill with which the painting is being done and the ensuing results in bringing out the dim and time-faded designs.

The court room was first painted in 1859 by George Selling of Lebanon. The commissioners at that time entered into an agreement with Selling to paint the courtroom in decorative style in imitation of frescoes for $450. Markings on the wall indicate that the original design was changed later.

High School Needs Nine More Class Rooms: The director of school buildings division, department of public instruction, Harrisburg, has recommended the construction of a nine-room addition to the Gettysburg High School. It was revealed today in an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg to The Gettysburg Times.

The recommendations to the local school directors that an addition be constructed to the local high school was made after a careful study by representatives of the division of school buildings of conditions prevailing in the high school here.

It has been known for some time that the high school was too crowded and the board has informally discussed the construction of an addition.

Original Deed of "Gettys-Town," 135 Years Old, Found. With the top of the yellowed sheet of heavy paper cut, or "indentured," the first deed placed on record in Adams County when the county was separated from York County in 1890 was found this week in a mass of discarded court documents and county records in the basement of the court house by Mrs. Amy Devine Sanders, of McSherrystown, who is making a CWA survey of the county's records since its establishment.

The indenture, executed January 24, 1799, between James Gettys, founder of Gettysburg, or "Gettys-Town" as it was originally known, and his wife, Mary, and the Rev.
Alexander Dobbins, who founded the first public school west of the Susquehanna River, and David Moore Sr., was considered so valuable by Louis W. Wagaman, clerk to the Adams County Commissioners, that he has locked it in the strong box of the safe in the commissioners' office.

The deed transfers from Mr. and Mrs. James Gettys to the Rev. Mr.
Dobbins and Mr. Moore, "a suitable lot of ground for the purpose of building a gaol (jail) thereon" on the condition that "Gettys-Town" be chosen as the county seat of that portion of York County which was later taken to form Adams County.

Mr. and Mrs. Gettys received no compensation for transferring the land to the Rev. Mr. Dobbins and Mr. Moore other than "the advance which we may derive from the increase in the value of the remainder of our property by Gettys-Town being fixed upon for the seat of justice."

Will Dedicate New Building at Camp No. 1: With the dedication of the new recreation hall at M. P.
Camp No. 1 in Pitzer's Woods, on the battlefield, the fifteenth and last building comprising the Civilian Conservation Corps camp here will be completed and the forest unit will be completely housed and equipped. Captain Francis Moran, commandant of the first C.C.C., until here, announced today. The new recreation hall, 100 feet long and 20 feet wide, will be completed some time next week.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ON THINKING

In my newspaper recently I discovered a small item about Orville Hubbard, the mayor of Dearborn, Michigan. He ordered his city administrators to observe a daily 30-minute "think period" upon entering their duties for the day. He asked them to shut themselves in their offices, answer no phone calls—and just think! He remarked that "they may have ideas" as a result.

I am of the opinion that Mayor Hubbard has a good idea himself in making that suggestion. A goodly number of our troubles and mistakes come about because we fail to think. And consider the many opportunities that others have grasped by thinking, while we only stood and watched them triumphantly make them their own.

We are reminded of what Emerson said: "In every work of genius we recognize our own rejected thoughts: they come back to us with a certain alienated majesty."
This quotation is taken from Emerson's "Self-Reliance," one of the most inspiring essays ever written. It stimulates to the very marrow of one's bones!

One of the great art creations of the world is Rodin's "The Thinker." In heroic bronze its very silence challenges thought.
In my reading it is almost habitual for me to pause after reading something striking or beautiful, and to set my book aside while I think about the significance of what I have read. If a book doesn't create thought it isn't worth reading. All reading should enlarge the area in the brain for fresh thoughts.

After thoughts are rarely as valuable as the before thoughts in human action. How often we come across a great thought and say to ourselves, I wish I had said that! Or, I wish I had thought of that. We couldn't do better for ourselves than to set aside a portion of each day—just to sit and think, especially if we try to make that thinking constructive.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Distinguishing Patterns."

BEEF, CHICKEN
SEEM GOOD BUYS THIS WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef and chicken look like the best buys in the country's food markets this week. In addition, a number of stores will feature turkeys and smoked hams for the Washington's Birthday holiday on Monday.

Prime ribs of beef will be a weekend attraction in a good many stores, with reductions of as much as six cents a pound. Chickens will be marked down two to four cents a pound in numerous markets.

You'll have to check your individual store, however, because some plan to raise prices on both beef and chicken by two to four cents a pound.

Eggs To Be Lower

Stores featuring turkeys will trim prices by from 4 to 10 cents a pound. Specials on smoked hams will lower prices about four cents a pound.

Lamb and pork will cost more in most stores. Leg of lamb will be up 19 to 12 cents a pound in some outlets and pork chops will rise as much as a dime a pound. Wholesale prices on both meats have been rising lately.

Eggs will be generally lower.
Reductions will average two to four cents a dozen. Butter prices will be unchanged nearly everywhere.

Onions Good Bet

Lower butter prices are on the way as the result of the government's slash of about eight cents a pound in the federal support price for that product. Producers are confidently predicting a sizable increase in consumption after the lower prices go into effect.
Some sources say they see a reduction of 10 cents a pound in retail butter prices.

Your best bet in vegetables continue to be onions, potatoes, cabbage and iceberg lettuce. Produce men list turnips, parsnips, carrots, sweet potatoes and broccoli among other good buys.

Citrus fruit prices moved higher on the wholesale markets, but grapefruit remains in the good buy

Just Folks

THE MANY

Some talent to each one allowed,
Some place to fill from day to day.
While able, all with strength endowed
To serve as each shall see the way.

The few, from cradle to the grave,
The path to fame or wealth may find.
But all the many can be brave
And to the troubled can be kind.

Not all the greatest sums can give.
Not all the most to aid can do,
But all of us the while we live Can to the faith we hold be true.

'Tis not for wealth or fame alone
The soul will praise from God deserve,
But for the courage that was shown
And for the willingness to serve.

Pennsylvanian Is Killed In Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A 75-year old visitor from Pennsylvania died at Jackson Memorial Hospital yesterday from injuries suffered Tuesday when he and his wife were struck by a car while crossing a street.

He was identified as Clarence
L. Metzgar, of 526 South Orange St., Media, Pa., retired eastern representative of the Auto-Call Co., Philadelphia.

His wife, Mary, also 75, suffered leg cuts and bruises but is recovering.

Police said the Metzgars were crossing a street in the southwest section, stopped in the middle and then stepped backwards into the path of a car driven by Ralph Maloy, 26, a student at the University of Miami.

No charges were filed against Maloy.

PALM SPRINGS

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—
President Eisenhower, warmly welcomed to this desert vacation resort, looked forward today to soaking up plenty of sunshine—much of it on the golf course.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower arrived here last night for five days of rest after a 9½-hour nonstop flight from Washington.
A crowd of about 3,000 persons turned out at the airport and cheered the couple as they descended from their private plane, the Columbine. Smiling, the President stepped to a battery of microphones and declared:

"Mrs. Doud There Too
"We are delighted to be back here once again. We have been looking forward for a long time to this trip. We are delighted to be in this state."

The Eisenhowers—together with the First Lady's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud—were welcomed officially by California's Gov. Goodwin J.
Knight.

On hand, too, was one of the Eisen-howers' hosts, old friend Paul G. Hoffman, board chairman of the Studebaker Corp., and former chief of the government's foreign aid program.

Selected Helms Home
Hoffman invited Eisenhower to Palm Springs four years ago, but the Eisenhowers actually are staying here at the Smoke Tree Ranch home of Paul H. Helms, a bakery executive.

The ranch, close by snow-thatched, 10,800-foot Mt. San Jacinto, is a development made up of 61 privately owned homes. Hoffman's place is located about a block from Helms' home.

Hoffman told newsmen Secret Service agents picked the Helms residence over his for the President because of security advantages.

ample," Hoffman said, "and it has

U. S. DIPLOMATS
WATCH CLOSELY
THE PHILIPPINES

By DON HUTH

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines Republic has embarked on a new foreign policy, "Asia for the Asians," which has U. S. diplomatic officials watching carefully.
Up to now, the new policy has left cold the Asian countries it was intended to influence.

The policy is based on developing an Asian nationalism under the wartime rallying cry used by Japan in promoting its East Asia co-prosperity sphere.

Philippine proponents insist the new policy will not affect traditional ties with the United States.
Despite this, American officials here indicate they must remain alert for any unilateral action which might affect the balance in democracy's bulwark against communism in Asia.

Fear Misinterpretation

The U. S. Embassy in Manila has not commented officially but appears concerned lest the policy be misinterpreted in some quarters in the United States. The Philippines still depend upon the United States for aid in supporting the islands' economy and so must move cautiously, U. S. sources indicated.

The basic change under the new policy would seem to be toward independent action in foreign matters and away from the old Liberal party policy of taking cues from the United States. At the last election, Elpidio Quirino, head of the Liberals, was beaten soundly for a second term as president by Ramon Magsaysay and his Nacionalista party.

The policy switch was disclosed in a surprising manner earlier this month. Instead of being enunciated by Magsaysay or by Vice President Carlos P. Garcia, the secretary of foreign affairs, it first was proclaimed by Garcia's under secretary, Leon Guerrero.

Guerrero was the "voice of free-

Soldier Jumps Or Falls To His Death

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP)—A 21-year old Army ambulance driver, who lived here with his bride of five months, fell or jumped to his death from a third-floor porch yesterday.

Military police found Sgt. Edward M. Moran Jr. of Tamaqua, Pa., lying on a concrete areaway behind a converted barracks building which housed offices of Second Army headquarters.

Moran died two hours later at the station hospital of multiple fractures.

The soldier had not reported for duty yesterday morning at the hospital where he worked. Personnel assigned to the offices in the headquarters building had not arrived for work when Moran was found.

The Army listed his nearest of kin as Edward M. Moran Sr. of Tamaqua. A board of officers was assigned to investigate.

dom" during the early days of World War II until his capture by the Japanese. Later he was released from prison and broadcast Japanese propaganda.

Guerrero's first strong support for the new policy came from Sen.
Claro M. Recto, wartime foreign minister of the Philippines under the Japanese.

Lange, Clune Spark Navy To 83-70 Win Over Bullets; Frosh Bow To Plebes 94-62

Navy's one-two scoring punch. Don Lange and Johnny Clune, was at its best Wednesday afternoon as the midshipmen downed the scrappy Gettysburg College cagers 83-70 at Annapolis. The pair dropped in a total of 64 points, Lange netting 33 and Clune 31.

The Bullets put up a creditable game all the way after dropping behind 18-8 in the first period. Early in the final quarter Coach "Hen" Bream's lads had cut the Navy margin to 56-32 before the Midshipmen spurred to clinch the verdict.

Navy's win was its 16th against five reverses. The Bullets have won 10 while dropping six. Gettysburg next meets Bucknell here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Goals by Lange, McCally and Clune got Navy off to a 6-0 lead in the first three minutes before Joe Lang of the Bullets landed a set shot. Navy chalked up three more goals before Fred Alleva and Bill Snyder connected after 6:30 minutes. Jack Keller netted the Bullets' final goal of the quarter at 8:40 as Navy held a commanding 18-8 margin at the close of the round.

Scoring was more evenly balanced in the second frame but Navy kept well ahead due to the efforts of Lange and Clune and at half time Gettysburg trailed 38-26.

A much improved Gettysburg team took the floor after intermission and outscored the home club 21-15 to cut Navy's lead to 53-47 going into the final stanza.

Bullets Threaten
Clune and Jim Sevebeck exchanged goals in the first half minute of the final period. Bill Snyder looped a foul which was followed by a free toss by Clune. Tom Lunn sank a goal after 1:30 as the Bullets trailed by but four points, 58-52. At that point Lange and Clune went to work again as Navy pulled away.

Bill Snyder was top man for the Bullets with 21 points. Of Lange's 12 field goals, 11 were brilliant hook shots.

The strong Navy Plebes led all the way in trouncing the Gettysburg freshmen 94-62. It was the 13th victory for the Plebes and fourth loss in 10 outings for the Bullets. Lee Koppelman connected for 18 points to lead the local dribblers.

PRIDE KEEPING YANKS ON TOP, ALLIE ASSERTS

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (P)—How do the fat and prosperous Yankees stay "hungry" enough to keep on winning baseball championships?

They don't, Allie Reynolds said today—it's not hunger that drives them on, but fierce pride.

"They thrive on the idea of being the best," the big Indian right-hander added.

Wants To Keep Playing
It's probably the same stuff that keeps Allie himself on the firing line although he's now 36, relegated to relief chores and rolling in oil riches.

"Sure, it's true I don't need my baseball paycheck to keep me going," he said, "but this is the game I got my start in, and it's hard to break away."

"I know there was talk I might chuck it this year and devote myself to my oil business. But my oil business doesn't keep me tied down. So I want to keep playing baseball."

Asking More Pay
"I'll play as long as I can help the Yankees. When I can't, I'll quit—but you can bet this, I'll quit on top."

Reynolds had a second conference scheduled here today with Assistant General Manager Roy Hamey over 1954 salary demands.

The Yankees are said to be offering the wealthy Cherokee no more than last year's $37,500, if that much. He is reported holding out for $40,000.

JIMMY SLADE WINS IN UPSET

WASHINGTON (P)—Jimmy Slade, 27-year-old comeback kid, has bounced right into the middle of the light-heavyweight championship picture.

"I out-manuevered him," Slade said after scoring a surprising 10-round decision over Clarence Henry of Los Angeles in a nationally televised bout last night. Slade, of Norfolk, Va., weighed 178½ lbs. Henry 186.

Jimmy's speed had Henry baffled through half the fight and then he added to Henry's confusion by talking with telling blows every time it appeared he had been hurt himself.

Ref Calls Draw
Judge Harry Dwyer saw the fight for Slade, 99 points to 91. Judge Bob Kilmartin had Slade ahead 97-95, but referee Charley Reynolds called it a draw, 94-94.

The Associated Press card gave Slade the edge, 96-94.

In Washington, fights are scored with the winner of a round collecting 10 points and the loser anywhere from 1 to 9. An even round is scored 10 points for each fighter.

MACK LIVES L. A. FOR ATHLETICS

LOS ANGELES (P)—Connie Mack, here to discuss plans for a movie of his colorful life, told reporters he would like to see the Philadelphia Athletics moved to Los Angeles.

"I love Philadelphia. It's my home. But I heartily am in favor of moving the Athletics to Los Angeles," the 91-year-old president of the Athletics said yesterday.

He declared it is increasingly difficult for more than one club to exist in the same city.

"I was always against entering Los Angeles or San Francisco because I thought it would break up the Coast League," said Mack. "But now I'm convinced that Los Angeles should be in our league before long."

Three studios are bidding for the script of Mack's life story. Jimmy Stewart and Jeff Chandler have been mentioned as possible "Mr. Macks" for the movie.

Riley Heckert Takes Position At Hershey

HERSHEY, Pa. — John B. Sollenberger, president of Hershey Estates, announced today that Riley E. Heckert has been engaged as golf course superintendent of the Hershey Country Club, Hershey Juvenile Country Club and Hotel Hershey golf courses. Heckert is no newcomer to this section, being a native of nearby Harrisburg, and having worked on and served as greenskeeper of the Harrisburg Country Club for 30 years, until 1948. Since then he has been the pro-greenskeeper at the Gettysburg Country Club, resigning there last December.

Heckert is a member of the National Golf Course Superintendents' Association, Philadelphia Golf Course Superintendents' Association, secretary and treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania Golf Course Superintendents' Association, and is also a Class "A" member of the Professional Golfers Association of America. He will begin his duties on March 1.

NEW YORK—Wichita University, the second-place team in the Missouri Valley Conference, accepted a bid to play in the National Invitation Tournament.

KANSAS CITY—Seattle University was named as the first all-star team for the National Collegiate championship tournament.

JOHNNY LOGAN ISN'T SIGNING

MILWAUKEE (P)—Shortstop Johnny Logan, somewhat surprised that his second-base buddy, Jack Dittmer, came to terms on Tuesday with the Milwaukee Braves, has no intentions of doing the same.

"We're nowhere near what I want," he said after forcing himself to accept, under considerable persuasion, the word that Dittmer had reached an agreement by telephone with General Manager John Quinn.

Logan, who fielded .975 in 150 games last year and .972 in 117 the previous season to top all shortstops in the league, declined to say how much he wants this summer. He is believed, though, to be demanding $20,000, with a fair chance of getting it. He's the only shortstop on the roster with the exception of aging Sibby Sisti.

BALTIMORE (P)—The Baltimore Colts have announced the signing of Roy Eccstrom, a 270-pound center from Westminster College (Pa.), for the 1954 National Football League season. He is expected to be the biggest rookie in the circuit.

GHS Meets Hawks Friday At Hanover; Junior High Host To Unbeaten Falcons

The Gettysburg High School basketball team makes its final journey into foreign territory Friday evening when the Hanover Nighthawks will be met at Hanover in a South Penn League game. Next Tuesday the Warriors ring down the curtain on their season by playing host to Chambersburg, defending champions.

Coach Luther Sachs' Junior High team will play their final home game Friday against undefeated Hanover. The Falcons have won 33 straight since 1952. The Jayvees will meet at 6:45.

Friday's game between the Warriors and Hawks promises to be a duplication of the thriller staged here in the first half when the locals eked out a 42-38 decision. A victory would insure Coach Forney's squad of finishing with a better than 500 record. They now have an 8-8 mark.

Top South Penn game Friday will be staged at Hershey where the Trojans, 5-0 in the second half, meet Carlisle (4-1) and deadlocked for second place with Chambersburg.

In other games Mechanicsburg will be at Chambersburg and Waynesboro at Shippensburg.

County League To Close
Final games in the Adams County League will be staged Friday night with most of the interest focusing on Littlestown where York Springs and the Thunderbolts will meet.

The winner will occupy the third place spot in the league playoffs and the loser the fourth place position. The playoffs will be staged next Monday and Thursday on the Gettysburg College floor.

East Berlin will be at Biglerville, Fairfield at New Oxford, and Boiling Springs at Newville in other league games.

The girls' division will also complete its schedule Friday. Boiling Springs can add the girls' title to the boys' championship by winning at Newville. If the Bubbler lose and second-place Littlestown wins over York Springs, a deadlock will take place.

Delone Catholic (10-8) is host to York Catholic Friday night.

Lange, Clune Spark Navy To 83-70 Win Over Bullets; Frosh Bow To Plebes 94-62

Navy's one-two scoring punch, Don Lange and Johnny Clune, was at its best Wednesday afternoon as the midshipmen downed the scrappy Gettysburg College cagers 83-70 at Annapolis. The pair dropped in a total of 64 points. Lange netting 33 and Clune 31.

The Bullets put up a creditable game all the way after dropping behind 18-8 in the first period. Early in the final quarter Coach "Hen" Bream's lads had cut the Navy margin to 56-52 before the Midshipmen spurred to clinch the verdict.

Navy's win was its 16th against five reverses. The Bullets have won 10 while dropping six. Gettysburg next meets Bucknell here Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Goals by Lange, McCally and Clune got Navy off to a 6-0 lead in the first three minutes before Joe Lang of the Bullets landed a set shot. Navy chalked up three more goals before Fred Alleva and Bill Snyder connected after 6:30 minutes. Jack Keller netted the Bullets' final goal of the quarter at 8:40 as Navy held a commanding 18-8 margin at the close of the round.

Scoring was more evenly balanced in the second frame but Navy kept well ahead due to the efforts of Lange and Clune and at half time Gettysburg trailed 38-26.

A much improved Gettysburg team took the floor after intermission and outscored the home club 21-15 to cut Navy's lead to 53-47 going into the final stanza.

Bullets Threaten
Clune and Jim Sevebeck exchanged goals in the first half minute of the final period. Bill Snyder looped a foul which was followed by a free toss by Clune. Tom Lunn sank a goal after 1:36 as the Bullets trailed by but four points, 56-52. At that point Lange and Clune went to work again as Navy pulled away.

Bill Snyder was top man for the Bullets with 21 points. Of Lange's 12 field goals, 11 were brilliant hook shots.

The strong Navy Plebes led all the way in trouncing the Gettysburg freshmen 94-62. It was the 13th victory for the Plebes and fourth loss in 10 outings for the Bullets. Lee Koppelman connected for 18 points to lead the local dribblers.

YEADON BEATS LANSLOWNE FOR CAGE PLAYOFFS

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (P)—A win for one and a loss for the other qualified state champion Yeadon and eliminated 1953 runnerup Sharon from next month's state scholastic basketball playoffs.

Once beaten Yeadon trampled Lansdowne, its closest opponent in the Suburban Philadelphia 2 League by a 64-39 score Tuesday to sew up season honors and win a berth in the District 1 eliminations. Last year Yeadon tied Darby for the title but Darby entered the B playoffs while Yeadon went on to win the A competition with six straight eye opening victories.

The Eagles scored their 17th triumph (only loss was by one point to Radnor) for their 10th in the league and drew 2½ games in front of the field with only one to play. They meet Radnor next week to close out the season. In 1952-53 the suburban Philadelphia Delaware County five finished the regular season with a 16-2 record.

Farrell Is Victorious
At the same time the western Pennsylvania favorite and 1952 state champ, Farrell, emerged as the champion of what many call the state's toughest conference—Section 3 of the WPIAL (District 7). The "Home of Champions" section has produced a state finalist four of the last five years and the WPIAL has done the same in every one of the last 10 years. Farrell clinched season section honors with a 9-1 league and 19-2 overall slate by taking the measure of Beaver Falls, 66-49. The Steelers were handed a big assist by New Castle as the News knocked off Sharon, defending section, league and western titlist, 57-49.

With two games left Sharon is tied for second, three behind. The Sharon loss to New Castle was the first in 10 games against the News, or in about five years.

Thus, last year's result, when Sharon edged out the defending state, league and section winner Farrell, is reversed this season. It will be more than a year before anyone will know if Farrell can go as far as Sharon did.

3 Others In Playoffs
Beside Yeadon and Farrell three other clubs gained season league championships and playoff berths. Johnstown, District 6 champion (21-0), made sure of winning the Tri-county flag for the second straight year and fourth in last five by licking Ferndale. It was the 10th in a row in the league for the Trojans.

Clearfield repeated as District 9s southern champ with a decisive 65-56 win over DuBois. Glassport won the Section 10 WPIAL crown by unseating defending champion Hurst, 47-39, for its 10th straight section win.

Five clubs had previously entered the playoff field: Williamsport and Coal Twp. of District 4; Erie East of District 10; and Greensburg and Rankin of District 7. In three major conferences first place ties were continued. St. Clair and Shenandoah kept abreast with their victory of the North Schuylkill second half. Whitehall and Palmerton remained knotted with 4-1 marks in the Lehigh Valley standings. And Nanticoke and Plymouth hold identical 4-0 Wyoming Valley logs.

Other clubs stepping out into undisputed possession of first place or holding leads built up earlier were: Allentown of the East Penn; Hershey of the South Penn; Lewisburg of the Central Penn; Bloomsburg of the Susquehanna; Dickson City of the Lackawanna; Lansford of the Black Diamond; and Chester of Suburban Philadelphia One.

WINS KELLY MEDAL
PHILADELPHIA (P)—George E. Bellis, state athletic activities director of the American Legion, last night was awarded the John B. Kelly Sr. medal for outstanding contributions to sports. Bellis has directed the legion's Junior Baseball program in Pennsylvania for the past 24 years.

Riley Heckert Takes Position At Hershey

HERSHEY, Pa.—John B. Sollenberger, president of Hershey Estates, announced today that Riley E. Heckert has been engaged as golf course superintendent of the Hershey Country Club, Hershey Juvenile Country Club and Hotel Hershey golf courses. Heckert is no newcomer to this section, being a native of nearby Harrisburg, and having worked on and served as greenskeeper of the Harrisburg Country Club for 30 years, until 1948. Since then he has been the pro-greenskeeper at the Gettysburg Country Club, resigning there last December.

Heckert is a member of the National Golf Course Superintendents' Association, Philadelphia Golf Course Superintendents' Association, secretary and treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania Golf Course Superintendents' Association, and is also a Class "A" member of the Professional Golfers Association of America. He will begin his duties on March 1.

BASKETBALL

NEW YORK—Wichita University, the second-place team in the Missouri Valley Conference, accepted a bid to play in the National Invitation Tournament.

KANSAS CITY—Seattle University was named as the first large team for the National Collegiate championship tournament.

LOS ANGELES (P)—Connie Mack, here to discuss plans for a movie of his colorful life, told reporters he would like to see the Philadelphia Athletics moved to Los Angeles.

"I love Philadelphia. It's my home. But I heartily am in favor of moving the Athletics to Los Angeles," the 91-year-old president of the Athletics said yesterday. He declared it is increasingly difficult for more than one club to exist in the same city.

"I was always anxious entering Los Angeles or San Francisco because I thought it would break up the Coast League," said Mack. "but now I'm convinced that Los Angeles should be in our league before long."

Three studios are bidding for the script of Mack's life story. Jimmy Stewart and Jeff Chandler have been mentioned as possible "Mr. Macks" for the movie.

Plans were advanced for Little League baseball at a meeting of league officials Wednesday evening at the fire engine house. Richard Altomose, vice president, presided in the absence of Charles Smith, president.

Announcement was made that William H. Williams will manage the Lions Club entry this season, replacing John Long. It was also revealed Luther Sachs Jr. will again manage the Glenn L. Bream team and Francis Knox will again head the Moose outfit. The Rotary Club at present is without a manager.

Assistant managers will be designated later.

A major portion of the meeting was devoted to discussion on the new field being constructed at the Recreation Park. John MacPhail, secretary, said it is believed the field will be ready for practice about April 1.

Senators Martin And Duff Recommend John W. Lord, John Miller For U.S. Judges

WASHINGTON (AP) — A log jam holding up federal judge appointments in Pennsylvania for more than a year was broken last night with the selection of two nominees.

The commonwealth's two Republican senators—Edward Martin and James H. Duff said they agreed to recommend John W. Lord, a Philadelphia city councilman, and Atty. John Miller of Pittsburgh. The announcement came after a meeting with Leonard W. Hall, Republican national chairman.

Martin said their selections were also acceptable to the Justice Department and that he expected their nominations to be sent to the Senate in the near future. There are six U. S. district court judgeship vacancies in the state—three in the east and three in the west.

Lord, 51, a former state senator who is regarded as a protégé of Martin, was a special state deputy attorney general from 1939 to 1946. He would serve in the eastern Pennsylvania district.

He was not immediately available for comment. Associated With Duff Miller, 52, who has been associated with Duff in the senator's Pittsburgh law office, said in Pittsburgh he long has been looking forward to a career on the federal bench.

"Inasmuch as I have had no official word," he told reporters, "my only comment is that I naturally have been looking forward to entering a new phase of the legal profession since my name has been mentioned for consideration."

The Duff-Martin meeting with Hall came after a series of Keystone State political conferences during the day.

Other joining in the patronage talks were Lt.-Gov. Lloyd H. Woods the GOP leadership's choice for governor this year; Gov. John Fine; M. Harvey Taylor, state GOP chairman; G. Mason Owlett, Republican national committee man; Robert C. Duffy, GOP chairman of Philadelphia; and Fred C. Peters, Montgomery County party leader.

Rogers At Meeting

Although Martin didn't mention it, reporters noticed that William P. Rogers, deputy attorney general, also had attended the hastily called meeting with Hall in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, just off the Senate floor.

It had been planned earlier, as a climax to the day, that Wood, Taylor and the other Keystone

State GOP leaders would also join in the meeting with Hall.

But Senate voting on the Bricker amendment made plans so indefinite that the formal evening session, first scheduled for a hotel and later for the capitol, was called off.

So Martin, Duff, Hall and Rogers met for an hour in the office of Senate Secretary J. Mark Trice and then announced that was all for the day.

However, they indicated another meeting might be planned at some later date to work out further patronage problems.

Long Standing Vacancies

One of the three western Pennsylvania judgeship vacancies is a temporary seat created, along with one permanent seat in each of the two districts, in a recent bill passed by Congress and signed by the President. The other vacancies are of long standing.

Two seats were left open in the eastern district when James P. McGranery resigned to become U. S. attorney general late in the administration of former President Truman. The second vacancy occurred when the late Guy K. Bard resigned to run unsuccessfully for the U. S. Senate against Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) in 1952.

Besides Lord, Philadelphia Atty. Francis L. Van Drusen has been mentioned prominently for one of the two other eastern vacancies.

Martin emphasized, however, that no agreements have been reached on the remaining four vacancies.

The meetings yesterday, it was understood, also involved the pos-

GOP SPLIT BY MANION FIRING

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's firing of Clarence Manion as head of one of his study commissions split Republicans into two camps today.

Manion, former dean of the Notre Dame Law School, resigned as chairman of the Intergovernmental Relations Commission, declaring he had been let out because he supports a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to limit treaty powers.

The White House had no comment.

Bricker, whose amendment has been opposed vigorously by President Eisenhower, arose to tell his colleagues "there is a threatening storm ahead when men of great ability who do not see alike with the leaders of an administration" cannot continue to serve in an official position.

Court Sentence Pair To Church Attendance

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP)—Church-goers here might have been surprised at the sudden reformation of two men, charged with drunkenness. But Police Judge Eugene Lee of Sadieville wasn't.

Judge Lee suspended 14-day jail sentences against the men when they promised to attend church twice Sunday for 14 consecutive weeks. Said the Judge:

"If my plan doesn't work, I can forfeit the suspended sentences and force them to serve time in jail."

"And if it does work, I believe the defendants will form the habit of church attendance."

HEALTH PLAN EXPERIMENT TO BE CONTINUED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Evans, state public assistance secretary, said today that criticism by medical men and hospitals will not cause abandonment of an experimental medical relief plan in Snyder County.

"We're not going to give up the experiment," Mrs. Evans declared. "If any other counties come through with similar experiments we'll try those too."

The plan, which has drawn the censure of the State Medical Assn., Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Assn., and the Hospital Assn. of Pennsylvania, provides for the payment of $1 extra per month with relief checks.

The extra dollar is to provide for any medical expenses incurred by the relief recipient. Chronically ill persons, however, receive $5 more per month.

Started Last July

The plan was inaugurated in Snyder County July 1 and will remain in effect on an experimental basis for a year. In other counties medical bills for persons on relief are paid directly by the Department of Public Assistance.

Mrs. Evans said no judgment will be passed on the program by department headquarters until one year has elapsed. The program is strictly in the hands of the Snyder County public assistance board, she said.

Meanwhile, Luther H. Redcay, executive director of the county board, came to the defense of the experiment in the face of new criticism from the hospital and pharmaceutical associations.

Redcay said that the complaints of the professional societies "appears to be that the experiment does not provide assistance to suppliers of medical care in settling their accounts from recipients of public assistance."

"Singular Privilege"

He said the practice of paying medical men directly for service rendered relief recipients was a "singular privilege" which has "not been shared by landlords, grocers, and other suppliers who customarily extend credit."

George A. Hay, administrator of the Hospital of the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania and a representative of the trustees of the Pennsylvania Hospital Assn., had declared in a previous statement:

"Taking an amount of money and dividing it among both well and sick rather than giving it to the ill appears to be insurance in the reverse."

MARTIN, DUFF SPLIT VOTE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania's Republican senators divided yesterday on a White House-approved section in the Bricker amendment to make all treaties subject to court review as to their constitutionality. Sen. Edward Martin voted for and Sen. James H. Duff against the section which passed the Senate, 44-43.

home Tuesday about 12 hours after the accident in which 14-year-old Robert Berardi was killed.

At first Keating's death was believed to have been due to a heart attack, but then an autopsy revealed mouth burns and the presence of cyanide.

"It is a most regrettable case involving this fine officer who had been one of the most outstanding policemen in Middlesex County," said County Prosecutor Alex Eber.

Captures Fugitive With A Pitchfork

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Charles Pryor, who operates a farm at nearby Lappins, became suspicious yesterday when he heard his dog barking in the barn and went to investigate.

He picked up a pitchfork and jabbed a piece of canvas on the ground. Out jumped Steven Dean, a 20-year-old Negro who had escaped the night before from the Maryland State Reformatory for Males.

Pryor summoned guards from the Breathedsville institution and they responded, taking Dean into custody. He was serving an 18-month sentence for larceny.

"MISSION ACCOMPLISHED"

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Hagan Stewart, 24, of nearby Graysville, is in jail today—just as he wished. Police said they found a broken window in a jewelry store yesterday. Not far away, waiting to be picked up, was Stewart and a typewriter that had been lifted from the broken window.

Stewart was arraigned on burglary and larceny charges. He told the justice of peace he was unemployed, tired and hungry—and "wanted to go to jail."

FARMERS ASK MILK PRICE CUT

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Lancaster County dairy farmers have proposed an 80-cent reduction per hundred pounds in the price of milk, a step which their representative said would discourage overproduction which has lowered prices received by farmers.

James E. Honan, economist for the Inter-State Milk Producers' Co-operative, proposed the reduction, amounting to about two cents a quart, at a hearing before the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission yesterday. He said the move would bring prices in the Lancaster market area more in line with the Philadelphia market.

The proposal, he said, is contingent on the saving being passed on to consumers to encourage increased sales.

Inter-state also proposed the prices at Lancaster change each quarter as they currently do at the broken window.

The Misses Mary and Edith Long, Emmitsburg, showed color slides and described their trip to Europe last summer. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served.

HEALTH PLAN EXPERIMENT TO BE CONTINUED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Evans, state public assistance secretary, said today that criticism by medical men and hospitals will not cause abandonment of an experimental medical relief plan in Snyder County.

"We're not going to give up the experiment," Mrs. Evans declared. "If any other counties come through with similar experiments we'll try those too."

The plan, which has drawn the censure of the State Medical Assn., Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Assn., and the Hospital Assn. of Pennsylvania, provides for the payment of $1 extra per month with relief checks.

The extra dollar is to provide for any medical expenses incurred by the relief recipient. Chronically ill persons, however, receive $5 more per month.

Started Last July
The plan was inaugurated in Snyder County July 1 and will remain in effect on an experimental basis for a year. In other counties medical bills for persons on relief are paid directly by the Department of Public Assistance.

Mrs. Evans said no judgment will be passed on the program by department headquarters until one year has elapsed. The program is strictly in the hands of the Snyder County public assistance board, she said.

Meanwhile, Luther H. Redcay, executive director of the county board, came to the defense of the experiment in the face of new criticism from the hospital and pharmaceutical associations.

Redcay said that the complaints of the professional societies "appears to be that the experiment does not provide assistance to suppliers of medical care in collecting their accounts from recipients of public assistance."

"Singular Privilege"
He said the practice of paying medical men directly for service rendered relief recipients was a "singular privilege" which has "not been shared by landlords, grocers, and other suppliers who customarily extend credit."

George A. Hay, administrator of the Hospital of the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania and a representative of the trustees of the Pennsylvania Hospital Assn., had declared in a previous statement:

"Taking an amount of money and dividing it among both well and sick rather than giving it to the ill appears to be insurance in the reverse."

MARTIN, DUFF SPLIT VOTE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania's Republican senators divided yesterday on a White House-approved section in the Bricker amendment to make all treaties subject to court review as to their constitutionality. Sen. Edward Martin voted for and Sen. James H. Duff against the section which passed the Senate, 44-43.

At first Keating's death was believed to have been due to a heart attack, but then an autopsy revealed mouth burns and the presence of cyanide.

"It is a most regrettable case involving this fine officer who had been one of the most outstanding policemen in Middlesex County," said County Prosecutor Alex Eber.

Captures Fugitive With A Pitchfork

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Charles Pryor, who operates a farm at nearby Lappins, became suspicious yesterday when he heard his dog barking in the barn and went to investigate.

He picked up a pitchfork and jabbed a piece of canvas on the ground. Out jumped Steven Dean, a 20-year-old Negro who had escaped the night before from the Maryland State Reformatory for Males.

Pryor summoned guards from the Breathedsville institution and they responded, taking Dean into custody. He was serving an 18-month sentence for larceny.

"MISSION ACCOMPLISHED"

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Hagan Stewart, 24, of nearby Graysville, is in jail today—just as he wished. Police said they found a broken window in a jewelry store yesterday.

Not far away, waiting to be picked up, was Stewart and a typewriter that had been lifted from the broken window.

FARMERS ASK MILK PRICE CUT

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Lancaster County dairy farmers have proposed an 80-cent reduction per hundred pounds in the price of milk, a step which their representative said would discourage overproduction which has lowered prices received by farmers.

James E. Honan, economist for the Inter-State Milk Producers' Co-operative, proposed the reduction, amounting to about two cents a quart, at a hearing before the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission yesterday. He said the move would bring prices in the Lancaster market area more in line with the Philadelphia market. The proposal, he said, is contingent on the saving being passed on to consumers to encourage increased sales.

Inter-state also proposed the prices at Lancaster change each quarter as they currently do at

Senators Martin And Duff Recommend John W. Lord, John Miller For U.S. Judges

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A log jam holding up federal judge appointments in Pennsylvania for more than a year was broken last night with the selection of two nominees. The commonwealth's two Republican senators—Edward Martin and James H. Duff—saw they agreed to recommend John W. Lord, a Philadelphia city councilman, and Atty. John Miller of Pittsburgh. The announcement came after a meeting with Leonard W. Hall, Republican national chairman.

Martin said their selections were also acceptable to the Justice Department and that he expected their nominations to be sent to the Senate in the near future.

There are six U. S. district court judgeship vacancies in the state—three in the east and three in the west.

Lord, 51, a former state senator who is regarded as a protégé of Martin, was a special state deputy attorney general from 1939 to 1946. He would serve in the eastern Pennsylvania district.

He was not immediately available for comment.

Associated With Duff

Miller, 52, who has been associated with Duff in the senator's Pittsburgh law office, said in a Pittsburgh he long has been looking forward to a career on the federal bench.

"Inasmuch as I have had no official word," he told reporters, "my only comment is that I naturally have been looking forward to entering a new phase of the legal profession since my name has been mentioned for consideration."

The Duff-Martin meeting with Hall came after a series of Keystone State political conferences during the day.

Other joining in the patronage talks were Lt.-Gov. Lloyd H. Woods, the GOP leadership's choice for governor this year; Gov. John Fine; M. Harvey Taylor, state GOP chairman; G. Mason Owlett, Republican national committee man; Robert C. Duffy, GOP chairman of Philadelphia; and Fred C. Peters, Montgomery County party leader.

Rogers At Meeting

Although Martin didn't mention it, reporters noticed that William P. Rogers, deputy attorney general, also had attended the hastily called meeting with Hall in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, just off the Senate floor.

It had been planned earlier, as a climax to the day, that Wood, Taylor and the other Keystone

GOP SPLIT BY MANION FIRING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—President Eisenhower's firing of Clarence Manion as head of one of his study commissions split Republicans into two camps today.

Manion, former dean of the Notre Dame Law School, resigned as chairman of the Intergovernmental Relations Commission, declaring he had been let out because he supports a proposed constitutional amendment to limit treaty powers.

The White House had no comment.

"Bricker, whose amendment has been opposed vigorously by President Eisenhower, arose to tell his colleagues 'there is a threatening storm ahead when men of great ability who do not see alike with the leaders of an administration' cannot continue to serve in an official position."

Court Sentence Pair To Church Attendance

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP)—Church-goers here might have been surprised at the sudden reformation of two men, charged with drunkenness. But Police Judge Eugene Lee of Sadleville wasn't.

Judge Lee suspended 14-day jail sentences against the men when they promised to attend church twice Sunday for 14 consecutive weeks. Said the Judge:

"If my plan doesn't work, I can forfeit the suspended sentences and force them to serve time in jail."

"And if it does work, I believe the defendants will form the habit of church attendance."

Two seats were left open in the eastern district when James P. McGraney resigned to become U. S. attorney general in the administration of former President Truman. The second vacancy occurred when the late Guy K. Bard resigned to run unsuccessfully for the U. S. Senate against Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) in 1952.

Besides Lord, Philadelphia Atty. Francis L. Van Drusen has been mentioned prominently for one of the two other eastern vacancies.

Martin emphasized, however, that no agreements have been reached on the remaining four vacancies.

The meetings yesterday, it was understood, also involved the possibility of channeling federal patronage through the state Republican chairman. In this connection there has been speculation that Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, former congressman and one-time speaker of the State House of Representatives, might succeed Taylor as state chairman. Taylor, 77, has been chairman since 1942. Lichtenwalter is 44.

29 DISMISSALS FOR DISLOYALTY ARE REVEALED

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (P)—The number of officially disclosed 1953 government firings for disloyalty reasons rose to 29 today as the administration took steps toward analyzing 2,200 "security risk" cases.

The figure of 29 covers only five big departments whose officials have been questioned about security separations by the House Appropriations Committee and whose testimony has been made public. The same departments reported 437 "security risks" had been dropped.

Most recent agency to report was the Commerce Department. In testimony made public today, Asst. Secretary James C. Worthy told the committee 132 security firings or forced resignations last year included 23 persons classified as "cases involving alleged subversion or disloyalty."

Other Dept. Reports
Previously, the Justice Department had reported 1 former Communist among its 8 security firings; the Treasury Department had listed 4 disloyalty cases among 130 dismissals; the Agriculture Department had told of 1 disloyalty case in an undisclosed number of security ousters, and the Post Office Department had reported 166 security releases with no disclosure of how many, if any, were disloyal.

The State Department already has given its figures but the committee has not released them. Reportedly, there have been 534 security firings in the State Department, with 11 or 12 involving disloyalty.

About 40 Disloyal

On that basis, with the State Department figures unofficial, the committee has received reports showing that out of 971 security cases in six departments, 40 or 41 have involved persons found or suspected to be disloyal.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said, meanwhile, the administration's promise of a limited analysis of the security risks will not stop his demands for a Senate investigation of the whole issue.

Johnston told reporters the promised analysis "could mean anything—it only confuses the confusion." He said that as he understands the plan the analysis will leave many questions unanswered and there is no assurance the administration will make it public.

SQUARE OFF FOR BITTER DEBATE ON BEESON CASE

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate squared off today for bitter debate on the nomination of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board, with indications that he will be confirmed by a slim margin.

Republicans appeared to be lined up solidly behind the 47-year-old California businessman named to the NLRB by President Eisenhower. Most Democrats indicated they would vote against him, but there were exceptions.

One of these was Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), who said in an interview: "I think I'll support him. If there is no conflict of interest—and my investigation doesn't disclose it—

NO ACCORD ON PACT TO STOP UNION RAIDING

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (P)—The AFL Teamsters Union today drafted a rejection of a proposed AFL-CIO "no-raiding" agreement, a move expected to kill off any early prospects of a labor merger.

The "no-raiding" pact is reported to be for him.

Accused Of Deception
The six Democrats on the Senate Labor Committee, which questioned Beeson at length, accused him of giving the committee what they called "deceptive and misleading testimony" on three counts.

In a formal report to the Senate, the committee minority said Beeson gave "false" testimony when he said that he "had resigned from the Food Machinery and Chemical Corp." "had given up his pension rights" and "had not made statements appearing in the San Jose Mercury."

Beeson was vice president of the food machinery firm, at San Jose, Calif., before being named to the NLRB.

The Democrats declared he "withheld information of importance and revealed facts only with reluctance and when confronted with contradictions in his own testimony."

OUTSIDE LOOKS GOOD TO TIRED CAVE EXPLORER

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (P)—The outside world looked good today to Marguerite M. Klein, a school-teacher-explorer who found Crystal Cave's rugged depths too much for her strength.

She admitted she was "glad to be out" when fellow explorers in an extensive scientific expedition brought her to the outside last night over and around dangerous pits and crevices.

Samuel Aston Loyd, 30, an engineer from Waynesboro, Va., who helped lead the 27-year-old Chevy Chase, Md., teacher out of the cave, said:

Narrow Rim On Pit
"We put a rope around her to safety her across Bottomless Pit. She had to stop frequently for breathing."

Visiting Italian Teacher Is Very Fond Of Democracy; Likes U.S. Breakfast Of Ham, Eggs, Jelly

For nearly ten years dark-eyed Maria Perissutti, a school teacher in a Fascist state where academic advancement was doled through vicious "pork-barrel" party politics, witnessed the idealistic battle waged by the legions of "brown-shirts" and churchmen for the souls of youth.

It's not necessary to impress this Fulbright Award winner with the ideals for democracy or the benefits of freedom.

Now in the third of a four-week period of observation in the Gettysburg public schools, the 34-year-old Genoese-born school marm recently spoke out on the impressions of a rural Italian teacher on her first trip to America.

Although she admitted that her study of lower academic training in this country has been limited, she gave vent to an opinion that the Italian pupil is a more disciplined student, "however, American school children appear to be much more spontaneous."

Citing extra-curricular activity as the reason, she said: "In the United States I have found a much closer bond of comradeship between the teacher and the student."

Taught Languages
Miss Perissutti is one of 20 Italian teachers selected to come to America on travel grants sponsored through the foreign teacher education program. She was recommended because of exceptional aptitude in the field of secondary education. More than 800 teacher applicants were screened for the visas.

Gettysburg's visitor holds a teacher's certificate and a master of arts degree from the University of Florence. Since 1943 she taught Italian, Latin, history and geography in the northern Italian industrial town of Tolmezzo. Mezzo meaning one-half in the native tongue, the town is often written "Tol 1/2" by some of its more languid citizens.

In near-perfect English, Miss Perissutti—born March 3, 1920, and one of six children—described the rigors of living under the Mussolini regime. She told how school children were enrolled in the Fascist party school at the age of six and attend five years in the primary grades. At this stage the pupil makes one of two selections—going to a trade school or a middle school. The latter teaches such subjects as Latin, history, physical education, English, geography, French, drawing and religion.

Has Several Choices
Following three years in the middle school system, the student is given another double-choice. He or she may either attend a four-year teachers' school or a five-year scientific institute which stresses university preparation.

While Miss Perissutti was admittedly "just a bit homesick" upon arrival in Gettysburg, her stay since that time has been brightened by the chance acquaintance with a fellow countryman—Mrs. Lia McClellan, a waitress at Faber's Restaurant. Mrs. McClellan (nee Grasso) at one time resided in Trieste, a short automobile ride from "Tol 1/2."

Tolmezzo, with a population of 7,000, is similar to the size of Gettysburg she said expressing surprise to find a college in such a small town.

Quite naturally in a discussion with a citizen of Italy, the subject of food got its due. "I like your American breakfasts," she said.

Citing extra-curricular activity as the reason, she said: "In the United States I have found a much closer bond of comradeship between the teacher and the student."

Taught Languages
Miss Perissutti is one of 20 Italian teachers selected to come to America on travel grants sponsored through the foreign teacher education program. She was recommended because of exceptional aptitude in the field of secondary education. More than 800 teacher applicants were screened for the visas.

Gettysburg's visitor holds a teacher's certificate and a master of arts degree from the University of Florence. Since 1943 she taught Italian, Latin, history and geography in the northern Italian industrial town of Tolmezzo. Mezzo meaning one-half in the native tongue, the town is often written "Tol 1/2" by some of its more languid citizens.

In near-perfect English, Miss Perissutti—born March 3, 1920, and one of six children—described the rigors of living under the Mussolini regime. She told how school children were enrolled in the Fascist party school at the age of six and attend five years in the primary grades. At this stage the pupil makes one of two selections—going to a trade school or a middle school. The latter teaches such subjects as Latin, history, physical education, English, geography, French, drawing and religion.

Has Several Choices
Following three years in the middle school system, the student is given another double-choice. He or she may either attend a four-year teachers' school or a five-year scientific institute which stresses university preparation.

While Miss Perissutti was admittedly "just a bit homesick" upon arrival in Gettysburg, her stay since that time has been brightened by the chance acquaintance with a fellow-countryman—Mrs. Lia McClellan, a waitress at Faber's Restaurant. Mrs. McClellan (nee Grasso) at one time resided in Trieste, a short automobile ride from "Tol 1/2."

Tolmezzo, with a population of 7,000, is similar to the size of Gettysburg, she said expressing surprise "to find a college in such a small town."

fascinated and replaced by a single tome which tended toward exaltation of the Fascist.

The bitter ordeal of World War II, which touched even the far northern Italian province of Carnia—only 50 kilometers from the Austrian border—has convinced her that Italy wants only to be left in peace in order to rebuild its shattered economic system.

Her description of the Italian labor situation reveals a picture of widespread poverty and a consequent immigration of the nation's youth to neighboring countries in search of employment.

Dwelling briefly on the difference between Italian and U. S. schools, Miss Perissutti said that in Italy schools are state-regulated and all subjects are compulsory. She added that teachers are seen in the light of civil servants.

29 DISMISSALS FOR DISLOYALTY ARE REVEALED

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of officially disclosed 1953 government firings for disloyalty reasons rose to 29 today as the administration took steps toward analyzing 2,200 "security risk" cases.

The figure of 29 covers only five big departments whose officials have been questioned about security separations by the House Appropriations Committee and whose testimony has been made public. The same departments reported 437 "security risks" had been dropped.

Most recent agency to report was the Commerce Department. In testimony made public today, Asst. Secretary James C. Worthington told the committee 132 security firings or forced resignations last year included 23 persons classified as "cases involving alleged subversion or disloyalty."

Other Dept. Reports
Previously, the Justice Department had reported 1 former Communist among its 8 security firings; the Treasury Department had listed 4 disloyalty cases among 130 dismissals; the Agriculture Department had told of 1 disloyalty case in an undisclosed number of security ousters, and the Post Office Department had reported 166 security releases with no disclosure of how many, if any, were disloyal.

The State Department already has given its figures but the committee has not released them. Reportedly, there have been 534 security firings in the State Department, with 11 or 12 involving disloyalty.

On that basis, with the State Department figures unofficial, the committee has received reports showing that out of 971 security cases in six departments, 40 or 41 have involved persons found or suspected to be disloyal.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said, meanwhile, the administration's promise of a limited analysis of the security risks will not stop his demands for a Senate investigation of the whole issue.

Johnston told reporters the promised analysis "could mean anything—it only confuses the confusion." He said that as he understands the plan the analysis will leave many questions unanswered and there is no assurance the administration will make it public.

SQUARE OFF FOR BITTER DEBATE ON BEESON CASE

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate squared off today for bitter debate on the nomination of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board, with indications that he will be confirmed by a slim margin.

Republicans appeared to be lined up solidly behind the 47-year-old California businessman named to the NLRB by President Eisenhower. Most Democrats indicated they would vote against him, but there were exceptions.

One of these was Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), who said in an interview: "I think I'll support him. If there is no conflict of interest—and my investigation doesn't disclose it—

NO ACCORD ON PACT TO STOP UNION RAIDING

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL Teamsters Union today drafted a rejection of a proposed AFL-CIO "no-raiding" agreement, a move expected to kill off any early prospects of a labor merger.

The "no-raiding" pact is regarded as a necessary first step toward a merger of the AFL and the CIO that would put nearly 15 million members in a single organization. However, the teamsters Executive Board was due to veto the plan.

Dave Beck, Teamsters Union president, is openly ambitious to swell his union's membership, already 1,300,000 strong. He also was known to believe that separate alliances between individual unions are more likely to solve union rivalries.

AFL President George Meany said here at the AFL Executive Council meeting last week that 40 of the AFL's 110 unions were agreeable to signing the "no-raiding" pact. However, Teamsters Union sources said several big AFL unions, other than the teamsters, were against the plan.

CIO President Walter Reuther has said that virtually all CIO unions—except only a few with less than 2 per cent of CIO's membership—are willing to go along with the plan.

OUTSIDE LOOKS GOOD TO TIRED CAVE EXPLORER

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP)—The outside world looked good today to Marguerite M. Klein, a school-teacher-explorer who found Crystal Cave's rugged depths too much for her strength.

She admitted she was "glad to be out" when fellow explorers in an extensive scientific expedition brought her to the outside last night over and around dangerous pits and crevices.

Samuel Aston Loyd, 30, an engineer from Waynesboro, Va., who helped lead the 27-year-old Chevy Chase, Md., teacher out of the cave, said:

Narrow Rim On Pit
"We put a rope around her to safety her across Bottomless Pit. She had to stop frequently for breathing."

DUKES REACH TOUGH SECTION OF SCHEDULE

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (P)—The easy sledging is over for Duquesne's talented basketball team in the Dukes' bid to go through the season undefeated.

Untested in collegiate play in two weeks, Duquesne romped to its 21st successive victory last night by walloping Little Geneva 93-59. It was no challenge for the No. 1 team in the latest Associated Press poll as the regulars all hit in double figures.

Now, however, the Dukes go up against the meaty party of their schedule, starting next Monday against Bowling Green. Then in order will follow Cincinnati, Dayton, St. Bonaventure, Villanova and the National Invitation Tournament. If the Dukes can do it, they'll be the first team since Army in 1944 to go through without a loss.

Good Chance For Kentucky

Kentucky, the nation's only undefeated team, also has a good chance to go through without a loss if it beats De Paul in the Chicago Stadium Saturday night. Kentucky, ranked second with 19 straight, has a routine date with Tennessee tonight and also must face Vanderbilt, Auburn and Alabama. If the Wildcats and Louisiana State take the Southeastern Conference title, as expected, they would play off for the championship.

Dayton walloped Cincinnati 91-66 last night and Villanova trimmed St. Bonaventure 79-64. Dayton, No. 17 team, ran its record to 21-5 as John Horan scored 26 points and Bill Uhl made 24.

Only two other top-ranking teams were in action last night. Notre Dame, No. 6, fell behind Butler 11-2, but picked up by the quarter and won going away 61-56. Holy Cross, No. 9, romped to its ninth straight since a loss to Notre Dame in whipping St. Michael's of Vermont 89-67.

La Salle, No. 12, stopped Fordham 61-56 after leading all the

Seek Man Wanted For $15,000 Theft

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A warrant has been issued for a Moorestown, N. J., man who disappeared last July 24 from the Willow Grove office of the Ritter Finance Co. after allegedly writing unauthorized checks totaling about $15,000 on the company's bank.

Company officials said they traced the man, T. Edmund Kaeding, as far as New York where they found his abandoned auto, but then lost the trail.

U. S. District Judge Thomas J. Clary issued a bench warrant yesterday and set bail at $10,000.

ASHBURN IS IN PHILLIES' FOLD

NEW YORK (P)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who are having lots of trouble lining up their players for 1954, were feeling a lot better today after having come to terms with star outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Ashburn was forced to take a cut last season, but a club spokesman said yesterday the fleet flycatcher got back that amount plus an increase for his .330 batting performance in 1953.

The St. Louis Cardinals signed five players. Those who put their names on the line were Steve Bilko, Lou Ortiz, Eddie Phillips, Joe Frazier and Ellis Deal.

Others who signed were Billy Goodman of the Boston Red Sox, Bob Cerv, Charley Silveira and Al Cicotte of the New York Yankees, Jim Deling of Detroit and Rocco Ippolito of Baltimore.

SET DATES FOR CAGE PLAYOFFS

STEELTON, Pa. (P)—Close to 30 schools will compete in basketball eliminations from Feb. 26 to March 16 to choose the three District 3 representatives in the state playoffs.

A schedule approved yesterday by the District 3 committee of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn. fixes Feb. 26 for the start of the Class C school eliminations. It also sets March 16 for the Class A final at Hershey.

The Class B district champ will be chosen March 12 from among 10 entries while the victor in Class C will be crowned March 8 from among 12 entries.

Last year's champions were Harrisburg John Harris, Class A; Kutztown, Class B; and Robeson, Class C.

The committee approved the petition of Middletown, an independent to play in the A eliminations and another petition from Waynesboro High of the South Penn League to enter the B playoffs.

There are a possible five entries in the Class A division. The Central Penn winner drew a first round bye while the victor of the New Cumberland-South Penn champion first round game draws a second round bye into the finals.

CREDIT BUREAU

Bureau," Musser said. "Our files contain (or can obtain) credit standings of almost every citizen in this county or in any county in Pennsylvania."

Has 135 Members
The bureau numbers 135 in addition to seven member banks and two finance companies. Its files were said to contain 15,000 names, of which "eight per cent have never paid one person with whom they have ever dealt."

Dulaney declared he failed to see "how some credit-burdened firms in Adams County have managed to survive in business. It's better to leave stock on the shelves or gas in the pump than to give it away to some one who won't pay," he said.

The Credit Bureau was started in 1952 with an appropriation from the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce. "It was not until January of 1953—when Mr. Dulaney appeared as manager—that the organization began to roll," said Musser.

The bankers voted to participate jointly on an advertisement advocating purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds.

The next meeting will be held March 17 at the Altland Hotel, Abbotstown. State Senator George M. Leader, York, will speak on "How Banks Can Better Communities and Make Better Citizens."

Russia Rejects

rence in a clause spelling out that the meeting itself would not constitute U.S. recognition of the Peiping government.

The Geneva meeting would be the one major dividend from the otherwise fruitless Berlin conference.

May Call 20 Nations
The proposed Geneva conference would embrace about 20 nations—16, including America, Britain and France, which fought on the U.N. side in Korea—South Korea; Russia, Red China and North Korea.

Today—last of the Berlin talks—Dulles and Foreign Ministers Eden, Bidault and Molotov held their sixth secret session on sponsoring the new conference. They met for an hour and 15 minutes. Then they broke up to reassemble later in a bigger open meeting at which American officials believed they would almost certainly resolve the dispute over Chinese participation by making clear that it would not mean recognition.

It was also considered probable that the four would issue a statement favoring disarmament efforts in line with a resolution adopted by the United Nations last fall, which called on all nations to work for arms cutbacks.

Big Issue Unsettled
But the great problem of German

unification was without any solution and an Austrian independence treaty seemed to be in the same deadlock—unless Molotov was willing to change radically his insistence on keeping Soviet troops in Austria.

Western diplomats said the convening of a conference on Korea would lead immediately to a conference on ending the Indochina War. They said this was true because the Western powers had relaxed their condition that progress in making a Korean settlement would be necessary before any negotiation could take place on Indochina.

"Interested Parties"

The Big Four and Red China would participate in both the Korean and Indochinese talks, since all five are considered "interested parties" in both. North and South Korea would not take part on Indochina. They would be replaced by the anti-Communist governments of the three Associated States of Indochina. It was considered probable, too, that the powers would treat Indochina guerrilla leader Ho Chi Minh's Communist organization as an "interested party" and include him.

The issue over Chinese recognition came into focus sharply when the Big Four started drafting a communique to announce their agreement. Dulles insisted on wording that would nail down the understanding of no recognition and Molotov asked for a short time to think it over."

Five Red

was a full general who had doffed his uniform and donned that of a chauffeur.

The convoy headed first for Beria's home. Then, before the police chief realized what was happening, it swung into a prison courtyard. There the marshals delivered Beria to their own hand-picked jailers.

Faced Mixed Tribunal

It was a mixed eight-man tribunal headed by Marshal Ivan S. Konev that tried Beria as an enemy of the state, convicted him and ordered him shot. Many quarters believe he had been liquidated long before the Christmas Eve announcement of the execution.

In discussing Beria, the Eastern informants were surprisingly frank. It is evident that in the Soviet orbit it is now permissible to talk about Beria as long as the talk is against him.

These sources said the basic argument between Beria and other members of the Politburo was over the concept of Soviet government.

JOHN D. SETTLE, Mgr.
Seven Stars - Gbg. 943-R-4

They outlined events this way: Beria, devoted to Stalin, believed that one-man rule was the only kind that would work in Russia. Malenkov and others agreed that dictatorship is necessary for Russia's masses, but said it should be a "committee" form of government.

The disparity was so wide there was only one way to end the argument, the Politburo concluded, and the army was called in to do the hatchet work.

BANK RESOURCES

HARRISBURG (P)—The State Banking Department reported today that Pennsylvania's state banks were richer by $441,713,151 at the end of 1953 compared to their resources the previous year.

L. M. Campbell, state banking secretary, said total resources in the state banking system reached $6,648,147,076 last Dec. 31.

Loans and discounts rose $253,722,674 last year to a total of $2,340,198,037.

Don't Let Your Child
Have Diphtheria

DESPITE THE FACT that a way to prevent diphtheria was discovered many years ago, thousands of children have diphtheria every year. Much of this results from the indifference of parents. They know that their children should be immunized, but they just don't get around to it. Make a resolution now to have your children treated. The treatment is simple and safe. Ask your doctor about it at the first opportunity.

DUKES REACH TOUGH SECTION OF SCHEDULE

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The easy sledging is over for Duquesne's talented basketball team in the Dukes' bid to go through the season undefeated.

Unleashed in collegiate play in two weeks, Duquesne romped to its 21st successive victory last night by walloping little Geneva 93-59. It was no challenge for the No. 1 team in the latest Associated Press poll as the regulars all hit in double figures.

Now, however, the Dukes go up against the meaty party of their schedule, starting next Monday against Bowling Green. Then in order will follow Cincinnati, Dayton, St. Bonaventure, Villanova and the National Invitation Tournament. If the Dukes can do it, they'll be the first team since Army in 1944 to go through without a loss.

Good Chance For Kentucky

Kentucky, the nation's only undefeated team, also has a good chance to go through without a loss if it beats De Paul in the Chicago Stadium Saturday night. Kentucky, ranked second with 19 straight, has a routine date with Tennessee tonight and also must face Vanderbilt, Auburn and Alabama. If the Wildcats and Louisiana State tie for the Southeastern Conference title, as expected, they would play off for the championship.

Dayton walloped Cincinnati 91-66 last night and Villanova triumphed St. Bonaventure 79-64. Dayton, No. 17 team, ran its record to 21-5 as John Horan scored 26 points and Bill Uhl made 24.

Only two other top-ranking teams were in action last night. Notre Dame, No. 6, fell behind Butler 11-2, but picked up by the quarter and won going away 81-56. Holy Cross, No. 9, romped to its ninth straight since a loss to Notre Dame in whipping St. Michael's of Vermont 89-67.

Seek Man Wanted For $15,000 Theft

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A warrant has been issued for a Moorestown, N. J., man who disappeared last July 24 from the Willow Grove office of the Ritter Finance Co. after allegedly writing unauthorized checks totaling about $15,000 on the company's bank.

Company officials said they traced the man, T. Edmund Kaeding, as far as New York where they found his abandoned auto, but then lost the trail.

U. S. District Judge Thomas J. Clary issued a bench warrant yesterday and set bail at $10,000.

ASHBURN IS IN PHILLIES' FOLD

NEW YORK (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who are having lots of trouble lining up their players for 1954, were feeling a lot better today after having come to terms with star outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Ashburn was forced to take a cut last season, but a club spokesman said yesterday the fleet flycatcher got back that amount plus an increase for his 330 batting performance in 1953.

The St. Louis Cardinals signed five players. Those who put their names on the line were Steve Biko, Lou Ortiz, Eddie Phillips, Joe Frazier and Ellis Deal.

Others who signed were Billy Goodman of the Boston Red Sox, Bob Cerv, Charley Silvers and Al Cicotte of the New York Yankees, Jim Delsing of Detroit and Rocco Ippolito of Baltimore.

SET DATES FOR CAGE PLAYOFFS

STEELTON, Pa. (AP)—Close to 30 schools will compete in basketball eliminations from Feb. 26 to March 16 to choose the three District 3 representatives in the state playoffs.

A schedule approved yesterday by the District 3 committee of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn. fixes Feb. 26 for the start of the Class C school eliminations. It also sets March 16 for the Class A final at Hershey.

The Class B district champ will be chosen March 12 from among 10 entries while the victor in Class C will be crowned March 8 from among 12 entries.

Last year's champions were Harrisburg John Harris, Class A; Kutztown, Class B; and Robesonia, Class C.

The committee approved the petition of Middletown, an independent to play in the A eliminations and another petition from Waynesboro High of the South Penn League to enter the B playoffs.

CREDIT BUREAU Russia Rejects

Bureau, Musser said. "Our files contain (or can obtain) credit standings of almost every citizen in this county or in any county in Pennsylvania."

Has 135 Members

The bureau numbers 135 in addition to seven member banks and two finance companies. Its files were said to contain 15,000 names, of which "eight per cent have never paid one person with whom they have ever dealt."

Dulaney declared he failed to see "how some credit-burdened firms in Adams County have managed to survive in business. It's better to leave stock on the shelves or gas in the pump than to give it away to some one who won't pay," he said.

The Credit Bureau was started in 1952 with an appropriation from the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce. "It was not until January of 1953—when Mr. Dulaney appeared as manager—that the organization began to roll," said Musser.

The bankers voted to participate jointly on an advertisement advocating purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds.

The next meeting will be held March 17 at the Aldland Hotel, Abbotstown. State Senator George M. Leader, York, will speak on "How Banks Can Better Communities and Make Better Citizens."

rence in a clause spelling out that the meeting itself would not constitute U. S. recognition of the Peking government.

The Geneva meeting would be the one major dividend from the otherwise fruitless Berlin conference.

May Call 20 Nations

The proposed Geneva conference would embrace about 20 nations—16, including America, Britain and France, which fought on the U. N. side in Korea—South Korea; Russia, Red China and North Korea.

Today—last of the Berlin talks—Dulles and Foreign Ministers Eden, Bidault and Molotov held their sixth secret session on sponsoring the new conference. They met for an hour and 15 minutes. Then they broke up to reassemble later in a bigger open meeting at which American officials believed they would almost certainly resolve the dispute over Chinese participation by making clear that it would not mean recognition.

It was also considered probable that the four would issue a statement favoring disarmament efforts in line with a resolution adopted by the United Nations last fall, which called on all nations to work for arms cutbacks.

Big Issue Unsettled

But the great problem of German

unification was without any solution and an Austrian independence treaty seemed to be in the same deadlock—unless Molotov was willing to change radically his insistence on keeping Soviet troops in Austria.

Western diplomats said the convening of a conference on Korea would lead immediately to a conference on ending the Indochina War. They said this was true because the Western powers had relaxed their condition that progress in making a Korean settlement would be necessary before any negotiation could take place on Indochina.

"Interested Parties"

The Big Four and Red China would participate in both the Korean and Indochinese talks, since all five are considered "interested parties" in both. North and South Korea would not take part in Indochina. They would be replaced by the anti-Communist governments of the three Associated States of Indochina. It was considered probable, too, that the powers would treat Indochina guerrilla leader Ho Chi Minh's Communist organization as an "interested party" and include him.

The issue over Chinese recognition came into focus sharply when the Big Four started drafting a communique to announce their agreement. Dulles insisted on wording that would nail down the understanding of no recognition and Molotov asked for a short time to think it over."

was a full general who had doffed his uniform and donned that of a chauffeur.

The convoy headed first for Beria's home. Then, before the police chief realized what was happening, it swung into a prison courtyard. There the marshals delivered Beria to their own hand-picked jailers.

Fixed Mixed Tribunal

It was a mixed eight-man tribunal headed by Marshal Ivan S. Konev that tried Beria as an enemy of the state, convicted him and ordered him shot. Many quarters believe he had been liquidated long before the Christmas Eve announcement of the execution.

In discussing Beria, the Eastern informants were surprisingly frank. It is evident that in the Soviet orbit it is now permissible to talk about Beria as long as the talk is against him.

These sources said the basic argument between Beria and other members of the Politburo was over the concept of Soviet government.

Bank Resources

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Banking Department reported today that Pennsylvania's state banks were richer by $441,713,151 at the end of 1953 compared to their resources the previous year.

L. M. Campbell, state banking secretary, said total resources in the state banking system reached $6,648,147,076 last Dec. 31.

Loans and discounts rose $253,722,674 last year to a total of $2,340,198,037.

DECISION IN FEW DAYS ON J. ROOSEVELT

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A judge will announce within a few days how much temporary support James Roosevelt, who claims he's worse than broke, shall pay his estranged wife Romelle, who demands $3,500 a month.

A four-day hearing on the matter wound up yesterday with her attorneys accusing the eldest son of the late President Franklin Roosevelt of "making false statements for the purpose of concealing his assets."

Suit Trial Comes Later
Roosevelt's attorney said Mrs. Roosevelt will have to get along with $30 to $40 dresses instead of $300 ones.

Superior Judge Kurtz Kauffman took under submission the support demands and the amount to be allowed Mrs. Roosevelt for court costs and attorney fees.

The support order will be effective pending trial of their separate maintenance suits. In hers, Mrs. Roosevelt, 38, accuses her 46-year-old husband of infidelity naming three co-respondents. She also filed letters signed by him stating he admitted infidelities with nine other women.

Ability To Pay Is Test
Roosevelt has denied all the charges.

He already is paying his wife, who has temporary custody of their three small children, $1,073 a month.

Judge Kauffman said his decision will be based on Roosevelt's ability to pay as shown by his income and disbursements the past five or six years.

STATE AID TO START JULY 1

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Sanitary Water Board disclosed today payments will start July 1 under a plan to provide state aid for communities under the commonwealth's clean streams program.

The board said 124 municipalities already have applied for a share of two million dollars in state aid provided by the 1953 Legislature.

"There are a lot of municipalities that still must file their claims for these funds," said Chief Engineer J. H. Hoffert. "After they come in, we'll decide on allocations."

Under the formula, municipalities are entitled to two per cent of their sewage treatment plant construction costs every year. To continue beyond July 1, further appropriations would have to be set up by future legislatures.

Municipalities must have built their plants since 1937 and have them in operation as of last Dec. 31 to be eligible for the state aid.

Hoffert said the 124 municipalities that have applied so far have erected plants costing an aggregate of $49,633,311.

Connecticut claims it was the first U. S. state to license auto drivers — that was in 1907.

"EXTENDED" COVERAGE IN INSURANCE BEST

Although most mortgage lenders today require what is known as "extended coverage" in fire insurance policies on mortgaged property, thousands of home-owners who have paid off their mortgages are without this protection. Many of them do not realize it exists. As a result, they must pay for any damage not included in the insurance policy.

"Extended coverage" includes damage, caused by wind, hail, explosion, riot, civil commotion, smoke, aircraft and other vehicles. The premium is low and an "extended coverage" endorsement should be attached to every fire insurance contract.

One need not experience an actual fire to collect for smoke damage with "extended coverage." Damage caused by smoke from a nearby fire is paid for, and even the loss caused by "sudden, unusual and faulty operation of any heating or cooking unit" is covered. Most "extended coverage" policies now being written on a $50 deductible basis. That is the owner himself pays the first $50 of his loss.

The standard insurance policy and "extended coverage" endorsement applies only to the buildings described in the policy. To recover loss on trees and shrubbery, a separate policy is issued at nominal cost.

Grasp Hammer Close If Light Tap Wanted

Using tools efficiently is as important as having them handy around the house, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Grasp a hammer close under the head for the light tap needed for starting a nail or tacking. Hold the end of the handle for long, strong strokes.

Use a screw driver with a blade as wide but no wider than the slot of the screw. Put pressure on the push not on the twist.

Pliers are mechanical fingers for tight holding. Use pliers for twisting wire or pulling out headless nails. A wrench is the tool for nuts and bolts, not pliers.

Ever try splitting frankfurter rolls, spreading them with butter or margarine and sprinkling them with poppy seed before toasting in the oven? Delicious with salads.

Two Interior Views Of Minter's Store

The top photograph shows the dairy products and frosted foods section of the green grocery and meat store on Baltimore St., which this week begins the observance of its 38th anniversary. The lower photograph is of the fruits and fresh vegetables section.

Here's a flavor-change for cooked sliced carrots. Douse them with melted butter or margarine to which a dash of ginger has been added.

MINTER'S WILL

extend Minter's floor space to 28 by 90 feet and will allow full usage of the Baltimore St. building.

Independent Ownership
Minter's is owned independently by three men, Clifford Naugle, Glenn Minter and Stover Small. Employees include Joel Musselman, butcher, Charles Mertz, clerk; Margaret Kruck, Gladys Hay and Alice Lauer, cashiers; Mary Louise Kennell, bookkeeper; Peter Wilson, Phelps Pennington and Robert Kuhre.

The store gives its patrons a free delivery service and operates by self-service in all but produce and meat departments. Minter's features leading brands of frozen foods, dairy products, fresh meats, sea foods, groceries, bakery products, canned goods and many other articles.

While its building efforts in the past two years have not been comparable to the over-all renovations since the late Norris L. Minter founded the grocery business, in 1916 the present proprietors point proudly toward increased patron facilities. The store recently had its interior completely re-painted. Was Private Residence.

A century ago this northeast corner of Baltimore and Middle Streets was the private residence of a physician. Today it is the site of one of the most up-to-date and best equipped food markets in south-central Pennsylvania.

The store's history has been one of continuous enterprise, improvement, and progress. The store observed its 24th anniversary with a special eight-day sale in February, 1940 and its 26th anniversary in 1942.

Minter's store was moved from its Lincoln Square site to the present location in 1924. In its early days business was conducted both on the inside and outside of Norris Minter's "delicatessen." The fruits, nuts, and produce business was conducted during good weather on the sidewalk.

Back in the early 20's the interior of the store was modern for its day and age but bore little resemblance to modern merchandising ideas as exemplified in the present Minter store. Fewer goods were packaged. Only meats handled then were cold cuts but the store prided itself on the freshness, quality and taste of its fish and oysters.

DECISION IN FEW DAYS ON J. ROOSEVELT

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A judge will announce within a few days how much temporary support James Roosevelt, who claims he's worse than broke, shall pay his estranged wife Romelle, who demands $3,500 a month.

A four-day hearing on the matter wound up yesterday with her attorneys accusing the eldest son of the late President Franklin Roosevelt of "making false statements for the purpose of concealing his assets."

Suit Trial Comes Later

Roosevelt's attorney said Mrs. Roosevelt will have to get along with $30 to $40 dresses instead of $300 ones.

Superior Judge Kurtz Kauffman took under submission the support demands and the amount to be allowed Mrs. Roosevelt for court costs and attorney fees.

The support order will be effective pending trial of their separate maintenance suits. In hers, Mrs. Roosevelt, 38, accuses her 46-year-old husband of infidelity naming three co-respondents. She also filed letters signed by him stating he admitted infidelities with nine other women.

Ability To Pay Is Test

Roosevelt has denied all the charges.

He already is paying his wife, who has temporary custody of their three small children, $1,073 a month.

Judge Kauffman said his decision will be based on Roosevelt's ability to pay as shown by his income and disbursements the past five or six years.

STATE AID TO START JULY 1

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Sanitary Water Board disclosed today payments will start July 1 under a plan to provide state aid for communities under the commonwealth's clean streams program.

The board said 124 municipalities already have applied for a share of two million dollars in state aid provided by the 1953 Legislature.

"There are a lot of municipalities that still must file their claims for these funds," said Chief Engineer J. H. Hoffert. "After they come in, we'll decide on allocations."

Under the formula, municipalities are entitled to two per cent of their sewage treatment plant construction costs every year. To continue beyond July 1, further appropriations would have to be set up by future legislatures.

Municipalities must have built their plants since 1937 and have them in operation as of last Dec. 31 to be eligible for the state aid.

Hoffert said the 124 municipalities that have applied so far have erected plants costing an aggregate of $49,633,311.

Connecticut claims it was the first U. S. state to license auto drivers — that was in 1907.

MAJORITY OF MENTAL CASES UNDER 65 ARE FREED, CURED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's mental hospitals are sending home as cured about 80 per cent of all persons admitted under 65.

Dr. Hilding A. Bengt, commissioner of the Bureau of Mental Health, said that percentage has been reported at Warren State Hospital but would apply equally at other major state mental institutions.

Those sent home he said are cured in the sense that they are able to return to their families and live in society other than the restrictive limits of an institution.

Persons below 65 make up two-thirds of the entries to the state's 17 mental hospitals. Older cases are admittedly more difficult to cure.

Warren is the only hospital where an exhaustive inquiry into the records of cures has been made, Bengt said. The study goes back 30 years.

The statistics and percentage of persons sent home should apply equally, however, at institutions like Danville, Norristown, Harrisburg, Torrance, Wernersville and Allentown, Bengt asserted.

One of the biggest obstacles to improving the mental health record in the commonwealth, Bengt said, is the shortage of trained personnel.

He said there has been improvement on this score lately, and there should be still more improvement with the opening of the Eastern Psychiatric Institute in Philadelphia.

The institute, one of the high priority projects on the building program of the General State Authority, is expected to be opened by early 1956.

"At present we have only about half the number of psychiatrists in state mental institutions that actually are needed," Bengt said.

With completion of the Eastern Psychiatric Institute, however, a plan is expected to be worked out whereby all psychiatry trainees will serve at least two of their five training years there or in similar institutions.

The need for trained psychiatrists has become more acute, Bengt said, because the "field of psychiatry has broadened so rapidly in the last 15 years."

"More people have become aware of their emotional difficulties in recent years and have increased the burden of the already trained men," he added.

Training in state institutions not only would help the commonwealth in relieving a shortage of personnel but also is beneficial to the budding psychiatrist.

"The worst cases are in institutions," he explained. "all our trainees should have the experience of having worked with them, regardless of whether they continue institution work or go into private practice."

AMERICAN IN ALGERIA

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Journals and letters of James Leander Cathcart, an American who spent some eleven years as a captive in Algeria in the late Eighteenth Century, have been placed on exhibit in the Library of Congress.

While he was a captive, Cathcart served as chief Christian secretary to the Dey, the ruler of Algeria. After his release Cathcart held several United States diplomatic posts in North Africa.

30 FARM GROUPS ASK SUBSIDIES BE ELIMINATED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of 30 Pennsylvania farm organizations have asked the commonwealth's congressional delegation to seek elimination of all direct subsidies.

The proposal was included in a 10-point agricultural program presented on Tuesday by the group headed by J. Collins McSparran of Lancaster County, stage Grange president.

McSparran told Pennsylvania House members and representatives of Sens. Martin and Duff that the Pennsylvania State Council of Farm Organizations, the Pennsylvania State Grange, and the Pennsylvania Assn. of Farmer Cooperatives have approved the program.

"I think we are speaking for the great majority of Pennsylvania farmers," McSparran said.

The congressmen were told that subsidies "simply protect the inefficient farmer. If a farmer can't make a living under the law of supply and demand he should get out of farming. By stressing education, the inefficient farmer can be taught to get along without government help."

Farm Program

The group's program included:

1. Strengthening of programs of research and extension with special emphasis on marketing.

2. Continuation of cooperative programs of federal and state governments controlling diseases of plants and animals.

3. Gradual reduction of price supports.

4. Elimination of agricultural conservation payments.

5. Opposition to reclamation of new farm lands.

6. Economy in all branches of government.

7. Maintenance and strengthening of broad basic policies of federal service to agriculture; the gradual elimination of direct subsidy to agriculture and all other segments of the national economy; the adoption of a sound economic agricultural program designed to protect and preserve this basic industry.

8. Elimination of the federal tax of two cents a gallon gasoline.

9. Opposition to the elimination of trip leasing of trucks by the interstate commerce commission.

10. Agricultural representation on the secretary of commerce's committee to formulate a transportation policy.

JAPS TOAST YANK TROOPS

TOKYO (AP)—Ten U. S. servicemen today were toasted with champagne by Takeru Inukai, Japanese minister of justice, for their heroic assistance to police when thousands of Japanese stampeded toward a narrow palace gate Jan. 2.

Seventeen persons were killed and 65 were injured.

The 10 Marines, airmen and soldiers were given certificates of commendation and miniature gold statues commemorating the affair. Two additional American servicemen were honored in absentia, they having returned to the United States.

The 10 included: Pfc. Wallace S. Glassmyer, Ridge Ave., Parkside, Pa.

The American servicemen were at the scene of a human stampede when thousands of Japanese attempted to enter the grounds of the Imperial Palace to wish the Emperor good health for the coming year.

WANT VOICE IN USE OF TROOPS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators said today President Eisenhower has promised to consult Congress before acting in any crisis which might bring demands for use of American troops in Indochina.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) reported transmission of this pledge to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by Acting Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith.

Eisenhower has said there are no present plans to send combat units there.

Sen. George (D-Ga.) said the acting secretary had made it clear at a closed committee meeting Tuesday that this country is reserving its decision on what it might do if (1) Chinese Communist troops intervene in Indochina or (2) if the French should decide to withdraw from that important strategic area, scene of seven years' warfare against Communist led forces.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) added in a separate interview that testimony by Secretary Smith and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, showed without doubt that administration officials—from the President on down—do not expect either Red Chinese intervention or French withdrawal.

Unknown Canyons Deep In Earth Are Reached By Cave Explorers

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP)—Unknown canyons deep in the earth beneath the rolling hills of southern Kentucky were reached Tuesday by a tired band of Crystal Cave explorers.

After three hours of tortuous crawling and climbing they broke into "the beyond"—the explorers' term for the dark world of rough virgin passages 300 feet below the scenic landscape of the Mammoth Cave National Park area.

The zigzagging passages opened into larger cave rooms where the strangely contorted stone projections called helictites, rarest of all cave formations, dangled from the ceilings.

The three explorers—John Lehrberger of Louisville, Ky., Russell H. Curnee of Tenaflly, N. J., and Albert C. Mueller Jr. of Scotch Plains, N. J.—listened to their words bounce back from cave walls that never before echoed the voices of men.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Bucks County Republican leaders have nominated their first woman candidate in history for the General Assembly. They announced their support Tuesday of Mrs. Margaret S. Kooker of Quakertown for a seat in the State House of Representatives. The seat is now held by Republican Wilson L. Yeakel of

TRUCK, AUTO CRASH; 1 KILLED

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—A trailer truck and a car collided on the Trenton Freeway late Tuesday, killing 23-year-old Stanley R. Orlovski of Morrisville, Pa.

Orlovski was a passenger in the car driven by John A. Spisak, 25, of Trenton, who was injured. Police said Spisak's car jumped the safety island on the four-lane freeway where it passes over Strawberry St.

The driver of the southbound truck, Anthony Spera, 47, of Belleville, was not hurt in the collision. Orlovski's address was listed as 106 Barnsley Ave., Morrisville, Pa. He was pronounced dead on arrival at McKinley Hospital here. Spisak's condition was listed as not serious.

This was the second fatal accident on the freeway which was opened last fall to bypass Trenton traffic and as a connecting link into Morrisville, across the Delaware River.

ASHLAND, Pa. (AP)—An elderly woman was found dead and her husband near death Tuesday from heater fumes in their home at nearby Lavelle.

Coroner W. T. Fedko said Mrs. Margaret Lex, 66, had been dead about two hours when neighbors found her and her husband, William, 77. He was reported in critical condition at Ft. Springs hospital. The neighbors, Edward Klusen and James Schoffstall, said the lids were off a coal stove and the damper turned down.

Perkasie, who has decided not to seek another term. He has served in the lower house since 1928.

Man Found Dead In Vault Of Store

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry Passon, 53, co-owner of one of Philadelphia's largest sporting goods firms, was found shot to death Tuesday night in the basement gun vault of his store.

Detectives said Passon evidently had been dead since early in the morning. Death had been caused by a bullet wound in the right temple. Police said they found no notes in the vault.

Passon was one of the founders of the Philadelphia Spas basketball team, forerunner of the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Assn.

"TOY" PISTOL KILLS MOTHER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A mother of two small children was fatally wounded Tuesday in a flower shop while a friend was examining what she thought was a toy pistol.

Mrs. Catherine Columbuina, 30, was struck in the chest and pronounced dead on arrival at the Pennsylvania Hospital. Mrs. Josephine Lacovara, 30, daughter-in-law of the shop owner, was held on a charge of homicide and violations of the firearms act.

Police said Mrs. Lacovara was looking in a box of odds and ends when she explained: "Look a toy pistol," and pointed it at her friend. The gun was discharged and Mrs. Columbuina slumped to the floor, she told detectives.

JAILED FOR HEARING

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—William O. Osborne, 40, of Jeannette, is in jail today in default of $1,000 bail on a charge of impersonating a federal employee.

He was held Tuesday by A. A. Leiser, Lewisburg, U.S. Commissioner at Lewisburg after being arrested by FBI agents and state police. He was accused of obtaining $200 by posing as an employee of the U.S. postal system.

BRICKER WILL BACK GEORGE'S PLAN IF HIS OWN CAN'T BE PASSED

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-O) said Wednesday if the Senate rejects his version of a proposed constitutional amendment to curb treaty powers, he will back a substitute offered by Sen. George (D-Ga.).

"If we can get any proposal through the Senate I think the House will strengthen it because all the members there are up for re-election this year and they are responsive to public sentiment," he said in an interview.

Bricker's avowed willingness to take what he can get—in this case possibly the milder amendment suggested by George—apparently posed the most serious threat to administration leaders seeking passage of a treaty power proposal acceptable to the White House.

Ike Opposed
President Eisenhower has said he is opposed to any change in the Constitution which would limit his authority to deal with other nations or upset the traditional balance of power among the government's branches.

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader, has said both the Bricker and George proposals fall within those objections in their present form.

Bricker has proposed to revise his original treaty measure to provide in its chief section that no treaty or other international agreement can become effective as internal law except by act of Congress or by a separate two-thirds vote of the Senate.

15 Days Of Debate
His revision will come before the Senate now in its 15th day of debate on the issues, after disposal of a pending amendment offered

"Showing" His Girl, Driver Tells Cop

AUBURN, Ind. (AP)—Richard E. Roberson, 18, Fort Wayne, told the state trooper who arrested him yesterday that he was showing his girl friend how drivers get into trouble with police.

Trooper H. E. Austin said in a six-mile stretch he saw Roberson's car in the wrong traffic lane four times and off the pavement three times.

Roberson will get a chance Feb. 24 to show his girl what drivers who get arrested for reckless driving tell the judge.

Says Lichtenwalter Will Succeed Taylor

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Bulletin said in a dispatch from Washington Wednesday that former Rep. Francis H. Lichtenwalter of Lehigh County is slated to succeed M. Harvey Taylor as Republican state chairman of Pennsylvania.

The newspaper said the report was "vouched for in high Republican circles" at Washington as Pennsylvania GOP leaders gathered there for a meeting with National Chairman Leonard W. Hall.

Scheduled to attend the meeting tonight are L. Gov. Lloyd Wood, Taylor, Gov. John S. Fine and Sens. Edward Martin and James H. Duff. There was no indication whether Lichtenwalter planned to attend.

by Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich). Ferguson asked the Senate to agree to amend Article VI of the Constitution to make it read that "no treaty made after the establishment of this Constitution shall be the supreme law of the land unless made in pursuance of this Constitution."

This language, designed to guarantee court review of treaties on the question of constitutionality, was opposed by George and his following of Democrats on the ground that it would cast legal doubt on every treaty signed since the Constitution was adopted.

NEW PARK IS GIVEN TO STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania will have a new state park as a special gift from Samuel S. Lewis, secretary of forests and waters. Lewis filed a deed to 34.9 acres of land in Windsor Township, near Wrightsville, in the commonwealth's name on Tuesday at the York County courthouse.

The secretary, a veteran state-wide officeholder, said the gift was "a token of appreciation for what the people of York County and the commonwealth have done for me."

Development of the tract on the heights above the Susquehanna River will be up to the Forests and Waters Department, Lewis said.

An observation tower will be built, along with picnic tables, outdoor ovens, washrooms and a shelter.

Lewis, who served as lieutenant governor in the administration of Gov. Arthur James, 1939-43, said he had been trying to purchase the tract since 1934.

He said he was able to secure only two acres at that time. However, a 15-acre farm was placed for sale last November, which he bought, and added three more small tracts just recently.

Lewis also served the commonwealth formerly in the elective offices of auditor general and state treasurer and the appointive office of highways secretary.

LESS DRINKING REPORTED

DES MOINES, Ia. (AP)—For some reason Iowans drank less liquor last year than they did in 1952. Sales at the state monopoly stores — the only places where liquor can be bought legally — show that consumption fell off 66,000 gallons in the first six months of 1953. State officials said part of the decrease may be due to a recent crackdown on taverns that were selling whisky by the drink illegally.

Unknown Canyons Deep In Earth Are Reached By Cave Explorers

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP)—Unknown canyons deep in the earth beneath the rolling hills of southern Kentucky were reached Tuesday by a tired band of Crystal Cave explorers.

Great cave rooms, decorated with spider-like stone formations, were found by three male members of the National Speleological (cave study) Society expedition.

After three hours of tortuous crawling and climbing they broke into "the beyond"—the explorers' term for the dark world of rough virgin passages 300 feet below the scenic landscape of the Mammoth Cave National Park area.

The zigzagging passages opened into larger cave rooms where the strangely contorted stone projections called helictites, rarest of all cave formations, dangled from the ceilings.

The three explorers—John Lehrberger of Louisville, Ky., Russell H. Curnee of Tenafly, N. J., and Albert C. Mueller Jr. of Scotch Plains, N. J.—listened to their words bounce back from cave walls that never before echoed the voices of men.

Striking out from the falls, said Lehrberger, a Louisville dance instructor, was "like diving into a bowl of spaghetti—passages ran in every direction."

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Bucks County Republican leaders have nominated their first woman candidate in history for the General Assembly. They announced their support Tuesday of Mrs. Margaret S. Kooker of Quakertown for a seat in the State House of Representatives. The seat is now held by Republican Wilson L. Yeakel of

Man Found Dead In Vault Of Store

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry Passon, 53, co-owner of one of Philadelphia's largest sporting goods firms, was found shot to death Tuesday night in the basement gun vault of his store.

Detectives said Passon evidently had been dead since early in the morning. Death had been caused by a bullet wound in the right temple. Police said they found no notes in the vault.

Passon was one of the founders of the Philadelphia Sphas basketball team, forerunner of the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Assn.

"TOY" PISTOL KILLS MOTHER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A mother of two small children was fatally wounded Tuesday in a flower shop while a friend was examining what she thought was a toy pistol.

Mrs. Catherine Columbuina, 30, was struck in the chest and pronounced dead on arrival at the Pennsylvania Hospital. Mrs. Josephine Lacovara, 30, daughter-in-law of the shop owner, was held on a charge of homicide and violations of the firearms act.

Police said Mrs. Lacovara was looking in a box of odds and ends when she exclaimed: "Look a toy pistol," and pointed it at her friend. The gun was discharged and Mrs. Columbuina slumped to the floor, she told detectives.

JAILED FOR HEARING

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—William O. Osborne, 40, of Jeannette, is in jail today in default of $1,000 bail on a charge of impersonating a federal employee.

He was held Tuesday by A. A. Leiser, Lewisburg, U.S. Commissioner at Lewisburg after being arrested by FBI agents and state police. He was accused of obtaining $200 by posing as an employee of the U.S. postal system.

BRICKER WILL BACK GEORGE'S PLAN IF HIS OWN CAN'T BE PASSED

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-O) said Wednesday if the Senate rejects his version of a proposed constitutional amendment to curb treaty powers, he will back a substitute offered by Sen. George (D-Ga.).

"If we can get any proposal through the Senate I think the House will strengthen it because all the members there are up for re-election this year and they are responsive to public sentiment," he said in an interview.

Bricker's avowed willingness to take what he can get—in this case possibly the milder amendment suggested by George—apparently posed the most serious threat to administration leaders seeking passage of a treaty power proposal acceptable to the White House.

Ike Opposed

President Eisenhower has said he is opposed to any change in the Constitution which would limit his authority to deal with other nations or upset the traditional balance of power among the government's branches.

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader, has said both the Bricker and George proposals fall within those objections in their present form.

Bricker has proposed to revise his original treaty measure to provide in its chief section that no treaty or other international agreement can become effective as internal law except by act of Congress or by a separate two-thirds vote of the Senate.

15 Days Of Debate

His revision will come before the Senate now in its 15th day of debate on the issues, after disposal of a pending amendment offered

"Showing" His Girl, Driver Tells Cop

AUBURN, Ind. (AP)—Richard E. Roberson, 18, Fort Wayne, told the state trooper who arrested him yesterday that he was showing his girl friend how drivers get into trouble with police.

Trooper H. E. Austin said in a six-mile stretch he saw Roberson's car in the wrong traffic lane four times and off the pavement three times.

MAJORITY OF MENTAL CASES UNDER 65 ARE FREED, CURED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's mental hospitals are sending home as cured about 80 per cent of all persons admitted under 65. Dr. Hilding A. Bengs, commissioner of the Bureau of Mental Health, said that percentage has been reported at Warren State Hospital but would apply equally at other major state mental institutions.

Those sent home he said are cured in the sense that they are able to return to their families and live in society other than the restrictive limits of an institution.

Warren is the only hospital where an exhaustive inquiry into the records of cures has been made, Bengs said. The study goes back 30 years.

The statistics and percentage of persons sent home should apply equally, however, at institutions like Danville, Norristown, Harrisburg, Torrancia, Wernersville and Allentown, Bengs asserted.

One of the biggest obstacles to improving the mental health record in the commonwealth, Bengs said, is the shortage of trained personnel.

He said there has been improvement on this score lately, and there should be still more improvement with the opening of the Eastern Psychiatric Institute in Philadelphia.

The institute, one of the high priority projects on the building program of the General State Authority, is expected to be opened by early 1956.

"At present we have only about half the number of psychiatrists in state mental institutions that actually are needed," Bengs said.

With completion of the Eastern Psychiatric Institute, however, a plan is expected to be worked out whereby all psychiatry trainees will serve at least two of their five training years there or in similar institutions.

The need for trained psychiatrists

has become more acute, Bengs said, because the "field of psychiatry has broadened so rapidly in the last 15 years."

"More people have become aware of their emotional difficulties in recent years and have increased the burden of the already trained men," he added.

Training in state institutions not only would help the commonwealth in relieving a shortage of personnel but also is beneficial to the budding psychiatrist.

"The worst cases are in institutions," he explained. "all our trainees should have the experience of having worked with them, regardless of whether they continue institution work or go into private practice."

30 FARM GROUPS ASK SUBSIDIES BE ELIMINATED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Representatives of 30 Pennsylvania farm organizations have asked the commonwealth's congressional delegation to seek elimination of all direct subsidies.

The proposal was included in a 10-point agricultural program presented on Tuesday by the group headed by J. Collins McSparran of Lancaster County, stage Grange president.

McSparran told Pennsylvania House members and representatives of Sens. Martin and Duff that the Pennsylvania State Council of Farm Organizations, the Pennsylvania State Grange, and the Pennsylvania Assn. of Farmer Cooperatives have approved the program.

"I think we are speaking for the great majority of Pennsylvania farmers," McSparran said.

The congressmen were told that subsidies "simply protect the inefficient farmer. If a farmer can't make a living under the law of supply and demand he should get out of farming. By stressing education, the inefficient farmer can be taught to get along without government help."

JAPS TOAST YANK TROOPS

TOKYO (AP)—Ten U. S. servicemen today were toasted with champagne by Takeru Inukai, Japanese minister of justice, for their heroic assistance to police when thousands of Japanese stampeded toward a narrow palace gate Jan. 2.

Seventeen persons were killed and 65 were injured.

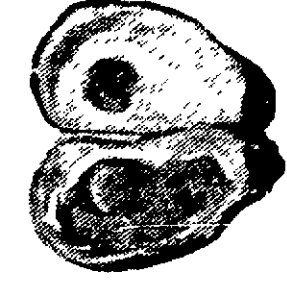

The 10 Marines, airmen and soldiers were given certificates of commendation and miniature gold statues commemorating the affair. Two additional American servicemen were honored in absentia, they having returned to the United States.

The 10 included: Pfc. Wallace S. Glassmyer, Ridge Ave., Parkside, Pa.

The American servicemen were at the scene of a human stampede when thousands of Japanese attempted to enter the grounds of the Imperial Palace to wish the Emperor good health for the coming year.

WANT VOICE IN USE OF TROOPS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators said today President Eisenhower has promised to consult Congress before acting in any crisis which might bring demands for use of American troops in Indochina.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) reported transmission of this pledge to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by Acting Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith.

Eisenhower has said there are no present plans to send combat units there.

Sen. George (D-Ga) said the acting secretary had made it clear at a closed committee meeting Tuesday that this country is reserving its decision on what it might do if (1) Chinese Communist troops intervene in Indochina or (2) if the French should decide to withdraw from that important strategic area, scene of seven years' warfare against Communist led forces.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) added in a separate interview that testimony by Secretary Smith and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, showed without doubt that administration officials—from the President on down—do not expect either Red Chinese intervention or French withdrawal.

New Man-size Furniture Is Designed For Solid Comfort

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

If you've been dreaming about chairs that are made to be curled up in and sofas that are so roomy they make you yawn, get set to rest your weary bones. A preview of spring home fashions held at the American Furniture Mart and Merchandise Mart in Chicago offers all that comfort plus convenience and color.

Twentieth century man (and woman) has been patient indeed. While designers went merrily along making furniture smaller, rigid and painfully streamlined, Americans have been growing taller, wider and busier.

Modern man hasn't had a style of furniture to call his own. Styles of the past emulated people and fashions of the period. The Empire style was so becoming to Napoleon that even his statues look "of the period" and his chum frame seemed to have served as a mold for furniture of that era. Victorian styles seemed to portray the Queen herself in design inspiration. And Louis court furniture stressed the curves, gills and velvets that complemented the gay and frivolous fashions of that era.

Our own early American styles were built on the needs of the colonists from the time of the earliest coffer of the Pilgrims. Shaker furniture illustrated the severe simplicity of that sect's mode of life.

Tall Boy Chair
But few new furniture designs in recent years have shown more than a pitiful expression of interest in suiting the consumer's physical requirements.

But now the tables (and chairs, sofas and chests) are turned. These look at last as if styles were emerging to suit the dimensions of modern man. And materials — leather, glass, plastics — are perfect, too, for today's rugged and busy life.

A "tall boy" chair by Richard Himmel is just the thing for tall Slim Jims. Wormley's "Long John" sofa measures 9 comfortable feet with a 40 inch depth, 6 inches deeper than standard. One firm offers "a new concept of adapting traditional design in furniture to today's requirements." Combinations of back and arms may be selected on store floors from a choice of seven backs, eleven arms — with desired sofa length.

Tables are designed with a view to conserving space without sacrificing beauty of line or wood. One dining table top requires no leaves, rolls out of a drawer over sliding rollers. Its molded fiber glass top is finished to simulate the mahogany of the chest. It maintains a rigid dining surface, seating from 8 to 12 people.

Many Rocking Chairs
The big birth rate in the United States and a desire to offer more comfort to the growing army of oldsters apparently accounts for the number of rocking chairs being designed. A wide variety of designs from the Boston-type and old-fashioned types, popular a few generations ago, to modern styles are being shown. Some are on swivels for easier viewing of television when baby has been lulled to slumberland. One platform rocker has a shirred or pleated skirt with a tight back and loose T cushion seat.

Large coffee tables are the order of the day to serve as television snack tables or for buffet service. Interlocking tables may be used separately or together to complement newer larger sofas and deep chairs.

Perhaps the greatest strides in the home furnishings field are being made in the world of plastics. Durable finishes offer endless possibilities, particularly in wood grains. They free the hostess of the coaster and doily as more coffee tables, corner tables, step tables, hostess carts adopt plastic resistance to food and drink.

Chairs of comfortable proportions are ready for hot food service with one chair having an attached arm side table topped in melamine plastic. One coffee table holds a drawer lined with this same plastic. The drawer may be removed to become a serving tray.

A new cork pattern is scratch proof because of its melamine laminate. It serves as a practical indestructible surface for a table top on a painted tubular frame in lovely shades of teal, pink, ebony, aqua, gray, chartreuse and charcoal.

BUILD-UP FOR ROCKY NIPPED

NEW YORK (AP)—Any attempts to depict Rocky Castellani as a "new Castellani—a slashing, attacking fighter" leaves Rocky cold.

"I'm still the old Castellani and what's wrong with that," said the No. 1 middleweight contender from Cleveland, who meets hard-punching Ernie Durando for the third time at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The 26-year-old Castellani, of Luzerne, Pa., pointed Durando in 1950 and was stopped by The Rock in seven rounds in 1952.

Called "Tiger"
"I've won 53 fights and only lost five and I'm still a boxer," said Castellani. "Boxing is my style and if I beat Durando I'll be ready for a title shot against either (Bobo) Olson or (Kid) Gavilan. Why change when I've gone this far?"

The ballyhoo artists have been trying to build up Rocky as a boxer who has turned "Tiger." Hints have been dropped, too, that he intends to go in and slug it out with the stocky Bayonne, N. J., bruiser.

SANDUSKY IS SIGNED BY COLTS

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts have signed another of their draft choices in Alex (Satch) Sandusky, Little All-America last year and captain of the Clarion (Pa.) State Teachers football team.

Sandusky, 21-year-old native of McKees Rock, Pa., was the Colts' 16th draft choice.

A defensive end at Clarion, Sandusky was a better than average pass receiver. Coach Weeb Ewbank may try to make a two-way player out of Sandusky.

Meanwhile big Ray Ellis, who starred as captain and linebacker at Shippensburg (Pa.) State Teachers College, has decided to play next season with the Colts.

The Colts said the 22-year-old rookie will get a shot at both offensive fullback and linebacker posts. He has been teaching at Seford, Del., High School.

Leather has become an even more versatile fabric due to a new tanning process. It serves as a table cloth, indoor shutters, as well as seats and backs in sling type and other chairs, tops for game tables and other occasional pieces. New leather colors in clude apricot, blackberry, gold and various soft greens.

Wrought iron and marble are passing fads. More brass is used in structural design. Pewter and copper finishes are used as hard ware for chests, bureaus, buffets, along with porcelain. At Grand Rapids Robt. Gibbings showed a line with silver plate trim.

As far as woods go, walnut seems to lead all the rest. Blonde mahogany still is available but darker mahogany wood tones have been challenged by the lighter woods — walnut, fruitwood, birch. Cherry is popular, particularly in the revival of traditional designs.

Some headboards are unique such as one cherry hutch head board, available for single or double bed, and a Windsor chair back bed, a good adaptation of a Windsor rocker back, also in solid cherry. An apothecary chest has four large lower drawers and eight in the cutback top.

Modern silhouettes are not quite so extreme as before. And comfort is stressed in more capacious sofas and chairs. Color keynotes most modern home furnishings, highlighted by tangerine, yellow, peacock or electric blue.

Butler Is Named Penn Frosh Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bethlehem Liberty High School Coach John Butler has joined the coaching staff at the University of Pennsylvania where one of his most prominent proteges, Charles (Chuck) Bednarik, became an All-America as a center for the Red and Blue.

Butler's appointment as freshman coach was announced Tuesday by Athletic Director Jerry Ford. DeWayne (Dewey) King, a part-time assistant coach at Michigan State for the past two seasons, was also announced as an assistant to head football coach Steve Sebo.

Butler's Liberty High teams won more than 80 per cent of their games during his 16 years as head coach. He played college football at Washington & Jefferson in 1928-29-30 and later coached at Shattuck High School where he had two undefeated teams within six years. He will take over his new post at Penn on March 1.

U. S. C. OF C. HAS CHEERFUL VIEW; NO DEPRESSION

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, voicing a cheerful outlook for the nation's economy, said today, "It is difficult to see any reason why this country should ever again experience an old-fashioned depression."

But CIO President Walter Reuther called it "dangerous and unrealistic" to think that "spring and the robins will bring prosperity."

He obviously referred in a statement for the Senate House Economic Committee to recent predictions by administration spokesmen that the U. S. economy, which they contend is adjusting after the Korean War, will start turning upward about spring.

Readjustment "Easy"
The Chamber said in its statement for the committee that so far the "inevitable readjustment" which it said was "bound to follow the end of fighting in Korea" has been "surprisingly easy."

The committee is making its annual study of the President's economic report, which Reuther described as a "weak-visioned document."

The Chamber said business in 1954 "will be good by any standards established before 1950," but that it probably will not be as "buoyant" as in 1953.

Sees Good Signs
The Chamber pointed to three good signs: "Strong sources of investment and consumer demand remain. Consumer income is still very high. Business intentions to invest in new plant and equipment indicate high level of capital investment this year."

Discussing unemployment, the Chamber said the Census Bureau reported that unemployment in January totaled 3.8 per cent of the civilian labor force. This, it said, is "in no sense an alarming amount."

However, the Commerce Department announced last night—after the Chamber statement had been prepared—that a new method of collecting statistics indicates that the number of unemployed early last month was 3,087,000—about 728,000 more than reported previously. This works out to 4.9 per cent of the civilian labor force.

Bullet Doesn't Stop Fish
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania Fish Commission reports a 15-inch 2-pound largemouth bass was pulled from a Lancaster county creek with a .22 caliber bullet imbedded an inch in its flesh just above the backbone. The bullet apparently had not prevented its living normally.

STOCKPILING OF HARD COAL IS URGED AGAIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Fenton (R-Pa.) has urged again that the government stockpile hard coal and thereby provide jobs for the hard-hit anthracite regions of Pennsylvania.

The Mahanoy City congressman told Secretary of the Interior McKay in a letter that government purchases of coal to be stored for an emergency would create needed jobs in one of the top unemployment areas of the nation.

What's more, he said, such stockpiling would save for defense purposes hundreds of thousands of dollars now spent for public assistance and unemployment relief.

Fenton made a similar suggestion in 1949 but J. A. Krug, then secretary of the Interior, replied that the benefits of stockpiling would be "far outweighed in the eventual disastrous effects to the mine workers and the industry."

Fenton told McKay this week that hard coal can be stockpiled without shelter and suffers "no loss by deterioration as is the case in many things that have been and are subsidized by the federal government."

Advantages To Defense
Such stockpiling, he said, would help conserve the nation's oil and gas resources, and that steam generation plants, distributed strategically throughout the nation, would be less vulnerable to enemy attack than hydroelectric dams.

Furthermore, he said, sabotage would be minimized and the nation's electric power resources would not be affected by drought. Fenton asked McKay to consider stockpiling on either a permanent or temporary basis and "bring some relief to the economically distressed people of the anthracite area who despite their persistent and courageous efforts to attract other industries into the region are still almost solely dependent on the production of hard coal for their economic livelihood."

The rank of captain is one of the oldest of military titles and before the 16th Century was of far greater importance than it is today.

WILL COMMAND ALLIED FLEET

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced Wednesday appointment of U. S. Adm. Jerauld Wright as supreme commander of Allied forces in the Atlantic.

Wright will replace Adm. Landis C. McCormick on April 12.

The White House said President Eisenhower also is nominating Wright to be commander in chief of the U. S. Atlantic Fleet and commander in chief of the U. S. Atlantic Command.

The announcement said nothing as to McCormick's future assignment. However, the Navy said McCormick will become president of the Naval War College at Newport R. I., replacing Adm. Richard Connelley.

McCormick was the last supreme commander of the Atlantic force in the Atlantic. The post is equivalent to that of the supreme commander in Europe, first held by President Eisenhower when he was a five-star general.

McCormick moved to the top NATO naval command about two years ago after the death of the late Adm. Forrest P. Sherman.

Headquarters for Wright's dual commands are at Norfolk, Va.

Wright, 55, was born in Amherst, Mass., and was graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., with the class of '17.

Divers Seek Body Of Crane Operator

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Divers and crimping crew searched in vain for the body of the operator of a crane that collapsed into the Delaware River Tuesday at the New York Shipbuilding Corp. yards.

Hauled into the water, Harry Pence, 55, of Gloucester, was believed trapped and drowned under the wreckage.

The mobile type crane, with a cab 60 feet in the air and a 110-foot boom, was moving gear that had been used in the launching of the SS Prairie Mariner, a dry-cargo ship, last Saturday.

Suddenly, with a roar that could be heard for blocks, the huge structure toppled across the pier

FAILURE OF BIG 4 MEETINGS IS BLOW TO PEACE

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two tigers moved up close to examine each other again, and again they withdrew to watch and wait and sharpen their claws.

That may be the historians' description of the Berlin meeting, which began Jan. 25 and ends this week, between the Big Four foreign ministers.

Three of them from the West—United States' Dulles, Britain's Eden, France's Bidault—have talked four weeks with Russia's Molotov. Neither side was expected to yield anything. Neither did. In that sense the meeting was not a disappointment.

But history may consider it a tragic disappointment if it turns out this was the last chance the Big Four had to settle their differences peacefully before World War III.

At Berlin the stumbling blocks were peace treaties for Germany and Austria, as they had been in one meeting after another since 1946.

This was only the latest in a series. The previous one was in September 1949. There may be others in the years to come.

If that's so, then this one, in spite of the attention it attracted now, may wind up as only a tiny footnote in history.

Bride Of 10 Days Dies Of Leukemia

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Paul Chylak Jr., 21, who married her state trooper sweetheart 10 days ago without knowing she had a fatal blood disease, died Tuesday with her husband at her bedside.

Evidence that Marie Chylak was suffering from leukemia turned up in a state-required blood test two weeks before her wedding. Doctors said she was dying.

Her husband, a state policeman at the Bedford, Pa., barracks, was told of the situation and insisted on going through with the wedding. Marie was never told the nature of her illness. She collapsed while on her wedding trip.

At the time of the first breakdown over Germany and Austria this country and the rest of the West were practically unarmed; Russia was an arsenal.

Still, there was a balance between them: This country was no match for Russia in number of men under arms but this country had the atom bomb, which Russia didn't. The bomb was enough to discourage Russian attack in Europe.

Both Grown Stronger

In the years since 1946 both sides have built up their muscle, sharpened their claws, pushed and pulled and tested each other without locking in a full death struggle.

East and West grow steadily stronger. Neither, therefore, seems to think it necessary to yield anything. If either did, at Berlin, it might have been the first paying stone on the road to ruin, so tightly are the two sides balanced.

Now like two tigers, each capable of uncorking sudden death, the two sides watch each other, each waiting for the other to jump or stumble, or, perhaps, to die of indigestion.

PENSION FUND WORRIES END WITH PARLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's pension fund squabbles which divided the players and owners into two warring camps during the winter meetings today appeared to have vanished almost completely.

The two-man major league owners' pension committee and two players' representatives found themselves so much in accord during a five-hour meeting on Tuesday that they agreed to recommend a similar committee be set up to run the fund in the future.

"You'll notice we have only two owners and two players," said John W. Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who represented the owners along with Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

No Arbitrator
"That's the way we wanted it. Nobody will have the advantage. We have no arbitrator. We don't want one."

Such a move, if approved by the rest of the owners and the 14 other player representatives, would be a radical step forward after the winter rubeas in which charges of bad faith were hurled by both sides with abandon.

The new four-man committee would have "full and complete" jurisdiction over pensions. At present the fund is run by a five-man group—two owners, two players and Commissioner Ford Frick. This body in turn is responsible to the Executive Council, made up of owners.

"I think this is a real big thing," Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs, one of the two players in yesterday's meeting, declared.

Dillsburg

DILLSBURG (AP)—State Grange representatives spoke at a meeting of York County Pomona Grange Saturday at the Franklintown fire hall with Washington Grange acting as host. Mrs. Vernon Norris, state grange lecturer, gave an address at the afternoon session. Pamela Dick, Dillsburg, entertained with a vocal solo. The Red Lion Kitchen band played. The program theme was "Love One Another."

A dinner was served at 5 by the Franklintown Fire Company's Ladies Auxiliary. The evening session began at 7 o'clock and featured an address, "Strengthening the Grange Through Cooperation" by W. A. Caldwell, Pennsylvania Grange Insurance representative. Milton Brown, Fawn Grove, was a vocalist.

Calvin Nell, York, was a recent "I don't know whether the other players will accept it but I think they will."

ASK FOR BIDS ON TURNPIKE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Advertisements for bids on construction of the first section of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's northeastern extension were printed in Wednesday's newspapers across the state.

The Turnpike Commission set March 9 to open bids from contractors on 3.63 miles of highway in a wooded section of Carbon County. The stretch is four miles east of White Haven and close to the Luzerne County line.

A commission spokesman said that letting of a contract on the first section could be made two or three weeks after the bids are opened and therefore ground breaking ceremonies may take place before the end of March.

He added that the commission will proceed to advertise other sections of the northeastern extension in the near future. The extension will run from near Norristown on the present toll road to the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre area.

Work on the initial section of 19,157 feet includes construction of various small structures, grading and drainage. The commission explained that the Carbon County tract was chosen for the first work since it involves no difficult engineering feat or major structures.

The commission, meanwhile, is awaiting a final traffic engineering survey before announcing its decision on the location of eight or nine interchanges along the extension. The survey is expected to be completed shortly.

Police Find Litigants Now Happily Married

MIDDLETOWN, O. (AP)—A Middletown woman asked for the arrest a couple of years ago of a man on charges of cutting with intent to kill or wound.

The police served the warrant on the man the first time they found him—a few days ago. They were too late. The two are now married.

Police spokesman said that letting of a contract on the first section could be made two or three weeks after the bids are opened and therefore ground breaking ceremonies may take place before the end of March.

He added that the commission will proceed to advertise other sections of the northeastern extension in the near future. The extension will run from near Norristown on the present toll road to the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre area.

FAILURE OF BIG 4 MEETINGS IS BLOW TO PEACE

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two tigers moved up close to examine each other again, and again they withdrew to watch and wait and sharpen their claws.
That may be the historians' description of the Berlin meeting, which began Jan. 25 and ends this week, between the Big Four foreign ministers.
Three of them from the West—United States' Dulles, Britain's Eden, France's Bidault—have talked four weeks with Russia's Molotov. Neither side was expected to yield anything. Neither did. In that sense the meeting was not a disappointment.
But history may consider it a tragic disappointment if it turns out this was the last chance the Big Four had to settle their differences peacefully before World War III.
At Berlin the stumbling blocks were peace treaties for Germany and Austria, as they had been in one meeting after another since 1946.
This was only the latest in a series. The previous one was in September 1949. There may be others in the years to come.
If that's so, then this one, in spite of the attention it attracted now, may wind up as only a tiny

Bride Of 10 Days Dies Of Leukemia

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Paul Chylak Jr., 21, who married her state trooper sweetheart 10 days ago without knowing she had a fatal blood disease, died Tuesday with her husband at her bedside.
Evidence that Marie Chylak was suffering from leukemia turned up in a state-required blood test two weeks before her wedding. Doctors said she was dying.
Her husband, a state policeman at the Bedford, Pa., barracks, was told of the situation and insisted on going through with the wedding. Marie was never told of the nature of her illness. She collapsed while on her wedding trip.
At the time of the first breakdown over Germany and Austria this country and the rest of the West were practically unarmed; Russia was an arsenal.
Still, there was a balance between them: This country was no match for Russia in number of men under arms but this country had the atom bomb, which Russia didn't. The bomb was enough to discourage Russian attack in Europe.
Both Grown Stronger
In the years since 1946 both sides have built up their muscles, sharpened their claws, pushed and pulled and tested each other without locking in a full death struggle.
East and West grow steadily stronger. Neither, therefore, seems to think it necessary to yield anything. If either did, at Berlin, it might have been the first paving stone on the road to ruin, so tightly are the two sides balanced.
Now like two tigers, each capable of uncorking sudden death, the two sides watch each other, each waiting for the other to jump or stumble, or, perhaps, to die of indigestion.

PENSION FUND WORRIES END WITH PARLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's pension fund squabbles which divided the players and owners into two warring camps during the winter meetings today appeared to have vanished almost completely.
The two-man major league owners' pension committee and two players' representatives found themselves so much in accord during a five-hour meeting on Tuesday that they agreed to recommend a similar committee be set up to run the fund in the future.
"You'll notice we have only two owners and two players," said John W. Galbreath of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who represented the owners along with Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians.
No Arbitrator
"That's the way we wanted it. Nobody will have the advantage. We have no arbitrator. We don't want one."
Such a move, if approved by the rest of the owners and the 14 other player representatives, would be a radical step forward after the winter rubebarbs in which charges of bad faith were hurled by both sides with abandon.
The new four-man committee would have "full and complete" jurisdiction over pensions. At present the fund is run by a five-man group—two owners, two players and Commissioner Ford Frick. This body in turn is responsible to the Executive Council, made up of owners.
"I think this is a real big thing," Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs, one of the two players in yesterday's meeting, declared.

Dillsburg

DILLSBURG — State Grange representatives spoke at a meeting of York County Pomona Grange Saturday at the Franklinton fire hall with Washington Grange acting as host. Mrs. Vernon Norris, state grange lecturer, gave an address at the afternoon session. Pamela Dick, Dillsburg, entertained with a vocal solo. The Red Lion Kitchen band played. The program theme was "Love One Another."
A dinner was served at 5 by the Franklinton Fire Company's Ladies Auxiliary. The evening session began at 7 o'clock and featured an address, "Strengthening the Grange Through Cooperation" by W. A. Caldwell, Pennsylvania Grange Insurance representative. Milton Brown, Fawn Grove, was a vocalist.
Calvin Nell, York, was a recent

Police Find Litigants Now Happily Married

MIDDLETOWN, O. (AP)—A Middletown woman asked for the arrest a couple of years ago of a man on charges of cutting with intent to kill or wound.
The police served the warrant on the man the first time they found him — a few days ago. They were too late. The two are now married.
Facing induction into the armed forces February 24 are James L. Ross and Carlos R. Zeigler of the Wellsville area.
Bermudian Church of the Brethren announces that the annual School of Christian Education, originally scheduled for six Thursday evenings beginning February 18, will be conducted on six Monday evenings instead, beginning February 22.

ASK FOR BIDS ON TURNPIKE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Advertisements for bids on construction of the first section of the Pennsylvania Turnpike's northeastern extension were printed in Wednesday's newspapers across the state.
The Turnpike Commission set March 9 to open bids from contractors on 3.63 miles of highway in a wooded section of Carbon County. The stretch is four miles east of White Haven and close to the Luzerne County line.
A commission spokesman said that letting of a contract on the first section could be made two or three weeks after the bids are opened and therefore ground breaking ceremonies may take place before the end of March.
He added that the commission will proceed to advertise other sections of the northeastern extension

Milady Will Have Choice Of Being Comfortable Or Really Fashionable In Spring Styles

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Fashion Editor

You might as well face it. The new spring fashions will put an end to all that dear, departed era when a girl could slop around in concealing full skirts and no girdle.

You have your choice this spring of being either fashionable or comfortable, but it's going to be difficult to accomplish both. The skintight sheath is the order of the day, with skirts that leave barely room to walk and midriffs that make it advisable to breathe with caution.

If you've allowed yourself to accumulate a spare tire around the middle, you'd better start the diet-and-exercise routine right now, in order to be in shape for your new Easter suit. Because the new narrow silhouette leaves no room for bulges.

Take skirts, for instance. Not only are they straight and slim, but they are likely to extend six inches above the natural waistline, nipping the midriff in a vice-like grip. Jackets often end just below the bust, so that every ripple of the torso is revealed.

This new silhouette is fine for thin girls, but it's going to be tough for the pleasantly plump.

Some designers take pity on long-suffering womanhood and work in a little ease in ingenious ways. Hattie Carnegie, for instance, has a "spoke skirt" which looks straight but actually has just enough flare to allow a girl to step into a taxicab without risking life and limb.

Can Conceal Spare Tire
Maurice Rentner puts a sort of crushed cummerbund on an Empire suit so that if you still have a bit of that spare tire around the middle, it won't show so much.

Above the belt, of course, things are fine. Sleeves are loose and easy, bodices are flatteringly draped, shoulders are natural and all lines are curved to accentuate the important rounded look at the top.

After five you can be comfortable too, for there are lots of cocktail and evening dresses with full skirts using yards and yards of fabric, and allowing room for as many petticoats as you like. Cecil Chapman has a swag-draped dance frock that has freedom enough even for jitterbugs.

You have to revise your ideas about what makes good tailoring this spring, too. It used to be that you always looked at the fit of the collar of a suit to tell if it was well tailored—if the collar fitted close and smooth at the back of the neck it was okay. That's all changed now. Collars are supposed to droop in back, and often stand out from the neck all the way around. This is called the portrait, open, or pictureframe neckline.

Low-necked Suits
Some suits are definitely low-necked, and some have short sleeves or no sleeves at all, believe it or not.

The "dress suit" is a new fashion term of the season, meaning a suit that's soft and feminine as a cocktail dress and can double for same. Sometimes there's a removable vestee in the low-necked suits. You wear the vestee during the day at the office or shopping, remove it and have a low décolletage for cocktail and dinner.

As to coats, the big news of the season is the black or navy silk fitted town coat, a fashion beloved by many smart women in seasons past, but missing from the fashion scene of recent years. These will be front and center in the Easter parade, sometimes with white starched linen collars.

Silk suits are all to the good also—all kinds of silk suits. There are printed silk ones with mink or fox collars. There are handsome nubby silk tweeds that look like navy taffeta suits that sometimes turn out to be a low-cut cocktail dress with a coverup jacket.

Clothes Are Lighter
All clothes are lighter weight this spring. This is because manufacturers and retailers are tired of wool. There are rustily black and being fooled by the weather man, who sometimes forgets all about spring and goes straight from winter to summer.

So most of the spring fashions of 1954 are going to do duty most of the summer, too, and perhaps

Weights, Measure Car Ticketed, Too Heavy

LINCOLN, Neb. (P)—They make no exceptions at the highway weighing stations set up around Nebraska to see that trucks abide by weight regulations.

Pheasant Caught By Hand
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (P)—Lloyd Fuller spotted a pheasant in an alley and caught it in his hands because it could not gain enough altitude to escape from the confining walls.

carry over into the fall, when they will be worn with coats.

The tunic is back this year, also, to give a new fillip to the silhouette. Pauline Trigere uses it effectively in an evening gown with a narrow skirt and a halterneck, knee-length tunic.

Typical of the new Empire look in suits is Ben Zuckerman's high-bosom suit, which has a seam just below the bustline and fits the midriff like a girdle.

About hemlines—there's nothing to worry about, girls. After all last summer's talk about knee-length skirts, Christian Dior shows skirts barely one inch shorter than those of last season, and most designers are doing the same, or leaving them where they were.

BOARD PONDER'S GOOSE VERDICT

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (P)—Does a goose have to be a goose? Couldn't it be a farm hand? Walter L. Pool, of the Norfolk County board of supervisors, raised the question after the board received a bill for $301 from Greenbrier Farms for 86 geese killed by stray dogs.

Greenbrier Farms, a nursery, imported the geese from Africa. Nursery says an African goose plucks grass but will not touch shrubbery. This makes the critter pretty important to nurserymen.

But are these geese poultry? The question is vital to the county's finances. State law requires the county to pay its citizens for loss of poultry killed by stray dogs. Pool said poultry is something you eat. The geese in question, he said, are "employees of Greenbrier Farms." Pool suggested the nursery stop billing the county and try to recover its loss through the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The board of supervisors voted to withhold payment pending a decision. The board also instructed the commonwealth's attorney to prepare an amendment for submission to the state legislature which would completely depoul-

Demand For 'Skates' In Russia 'Immense'

NEW YORK (P)—Soviet authorities are now pondering the question of whether or not to produce roller skates, Moscow newspapers reaching here say. Up to now the Soviet Union hasn't had any except a few pairs imported from abroad.

The problem arose when Soviet skating star Rimma Zhukov who uses roller skates purchased outside the country to train in the summer when her native Sverdlovsk has no ice sent hers to be repaired.

The repair workshop in Sverdlovsk which made the repairs got the idea that other Russians would like some too and made an experimental pair which was presented to the "experts council" for approval. The application is under consideration. Izvestia reports that the demand for roller skates among Soviet athletes is "immense."

tryze African geese. Need for speed is evident: Greenbrier Farms says it is so pleased with the work of its African geese that it plans to import 10,000 more of them next year.

KIDDIE KIMONO EASY TO MAKE

By DOROTHY ROE
The Associated Press
Glamorous dressing gowns are a must in any lady's wardrobe, and even a very young lady likes to look party-pretty for that last bedtime story.

Smart mothers can stitch up a glamorous pint-size negligee in jig time. The kimono is cut in one piece and can be made in an hour or so, after dinner or in the afternoon before the older children come home from school.

This kimono is made in pale blue pin-wale corduroy and stitched on the sewing machine with mercerized thread in matching color. For a novel little-girl trimming, cut little feet from pink felt or corduroy and applique around the hemline, using the zig-zag attachment of your machine. Make the toes of pearl buttons in graduated sizes for an amusing lifelike touch. Matching buttons go in pairs down the front, closed by loops of soutache braid, instead of buttonholes. Buttons are available

DAYTON, Ohio (P)—Mary Lou Hull, 18, has a pet blacksnake named George. She says she would rather have the 5-foot George wrap himself around her arms than hold a kitten or a puppy. Mary Lou has been interested in reptiles since she was old enough to hold a garter snake. A clerk-typist by day, Mary Lou studies herpetology in her spare time.

Her father, James T. Hull, says, "The whole family is enthusiastic about George." Her mother, a little less enthusiastically, says she tolerates George around the house but "draws the line" at pet alligators.

Pattern, fabric and buttons cost only about $3, and Mom can make a matching robe for herself for very little more.

Experienced mothers know that the washable kimono is one of the most useful and practical garments any baby can have. If you can add gay trimming, the small wearer will enjoy it even more. Use your imagination in working out other novel appliques.

Milady Will Have Choice Of Being Comfortable Or Really Fashionable In Spring Styles

AP Fashion Editor

You might as well face it. The new spring fashions will put an end to all that dear, departed era when a girl could slop around in concealing full skirts and no girdle.

You have your choice this spring of being either fashionable or comfortable, but it's going to be difficult to accomplish both. The skintight sheath is the order of the day, with skirts that leave barely room to walk and midriffs that make it advisable to breathe with caution.

If you've allowed yourself to accumulate a spare tire around the middle, you'd better start the diet-and-exercise routine right now, in order to be in shape for your new Easter suit. Because the new narrow silhouette leaves no room for bulges.

Take skirts, for instance. Not only are they straight and slim, but they are likely to extend six inches above the natural waistline, nipping the midriff in a vice-like grip. Jackets often end just below the bust, so that every ripple of the torso is revealed.

This new silhouette is fine for thin girls, but it's going to be tough for the pleasingly plump.

Some designers take pity on long-suffering womanhood and work in a little ease in ingenious ways. Hattie Carnegie, for instance, has a "spoke skirt" which looks straight but actually has just enough flare to allow a girl to step into a taxicab without risking life and limb.

Can Conceal Spare Tire

Maurice Rentner puts a sort of crushed cummerbund on an Empire suit so that if you still have a bit of that spare tire around the middle, it won't show so much.

Above the belt, of course, things are fine. Sleeves are loose and easy, bodices are flatteringly draped, shoulders are natural and all lines are curved to accentuate the important rounded look at the top.

After five you can be comfortable too, for there are lots of cocktail and evening dresses with full skirts using yards and yards of fabric, and allowing room for as many petticoats as you like. Cecil Chapman has a swag-draped dance frock that has freedom enough even for jitterbugs.

You have to revise your ideas about what makes good tailoring this spring, too. It used to be that you always looked at the fit of the collar of a suit to tell if it was well tailored—if the collar fitted close and smooth at the back of the neck it was okay. That's all changed now. Collars are supposed to droop in back, and often stand out from the neck all the way round. This is called the portrait, open, or pictureframe neckline.

Low-necked Suits

Some suits are definitely low-necked, and some have short sleeves or no sleeves at all, believe it or not.

The "dress suit" is a new fashion term of the season, meaning a suit that's soft and feminine as a cocktail dress and can double for same. Sometimes there's a removable vest in the low-necked suits. You wear the vest during the day at the office or shopping, remove it and have a low décolletage for cocktail and dinner.

As to coats, the big news of the season is the black or navy silk fitted town coat, a fashion beloved by many smart women in seasons past, but missing from the fashion scene of recent years. These will be front and center in the Easter parade, sometimes with white starched linen collars.

Silk suits are all to the good also — all kinds of silk suits. There are printed silk ones with mink or fox collars. There are handsome nubby silk tweeds that look like navy taffeta suits that sometimes turn out to be a low-cut cocktail dress with a coverup jacket.

Clothes Are Lighter

All clothes are lighter weight this spring. This is because manufacturers and retailers are tired of wool. There are rustly block and being fooled by the weather man, who sometimes forgets all about spring and goes straight from winter to summer.

So most of the spring fashions of 1954 are going to do duty most of the summer, too, and perhaps

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—They make no exceptions at the highway weighing stations set up around Nebraska to see that trucks abide by weight regulations.

One of the trucks ticketed was a state weights-and-measures truck sent out to test the accuracy of scales.

carry over into the fall, when they will be worn with coats.

Typical of the new Empire look in suits is Ben Zuckerman's high-bosom suit, which has a seam just below the bustline and fits the midriff like a girdle.

About hemlines—there's nothing to worry about, girls. After all last summer's talk about knee-length skirts, Christian Dior shows skirts barely one inch shorter than those of last season, and most designers are doing the same, or leaving them where they were.

BOARD PONDERERS GOOSE VERDICT

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—Does a goose have to be a goose? Couldn't it be a farm hand? Walter L. Pool, of the Norfolk County board of supervisors, raised the question after the board received a bill for $301 from Greenbrier Farms for 86 geese killed by stray dogs.

Greenbrier Farms, a nursery, imported the geese from Africa, nursery says an African goose plucks grass but will not touch shrubbery. This makes the critter pretty important to nurserymen.

But are these geese poultry? The question is vital to the county's finances. State law requires the county to pay its citizens for loss of poultry killed by stray dogs. Pool said poultry is something you eat. The geese in question, he said, are "employees of Greenbrier Farms." Pool suggested the nursery stop billing the county and try to recover its loss through the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The board of supervisors voted to withhold payment pending a decision. The board also instructed the commonwealth's attorney to prepare an amendment for submission to the state legislature which would completely depoul-

Demand For 'Skates' In Russia 'Immense'

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet authorities are now pondering the question of whether or not to produce roller skates, Moscow newspapers reaching here say. Up to now the Soviet Union hasn't had any except a few pairs imported from abroad.

The problem arose when Soviet skating star Rimma Zhukov who uses roller skates purchased out-of-the-country to train in the summer when her native Sverdlovsk has no ice sent hers to be repaired.

The repair workshop in Sverdlovsk which made the repairs got the idea that other Russians would like some too and made an experimental pair which was presented to the "experts council" for approval. The application is under consideration. Izvestia reports that the demand for roller skates among Soviet athletes is "immense."

tryize African geese. Need for speed is evident: Greenbrier Farms says it is so pleased with the work of its African geese that it plans to import 10,000 more of them next year.
